Club hit hard by rising costs and dwindling numbers

A WORKING Men's Club is to ask for hardship relief from Cannock Chase Council after struggling to make ends meet.

Rising costs and falling attendances have hit the Lido Working Men's Club, in Norton Canes, hard.

The club, in School Road, is more than 120 years old, having opened in 1889, but is now faced with rising fuel costs and dwindling numbers.

It lost £13,000 last year and club officials are appealing to the district council for hardship relief on its rates bill.

The venue has 400 members, including an over-60s club and crib-bage and darts teams. But with an annual turnover of £42,000, the club is finding it hard to cover the weekly £550 total wage bill of its five employ-ees.

Among them is club secretary David Smith, a member for 17 years, who is working for nothing to help ease the financial crisis.

Efforts

The rate relief committee takes place today (Thursday).

In a letter to the authority, Mr Smith said: "We've been struggling for a number of years but recent price rises, especially fuel costs, have led to severe problems, despite all efforts to save costs."

The club was relaunched as The Lido in 1946 for returning soldiers and pitmen from the thriving mining industry. In its heyday, the club boasted more than 1,500 members, offering cheap drinks and live enter-tainment but supermarkets have taken over the discount drinks trade and the smoking ban has also taken its toll.

In a bid to drum up trade, members have appealed to villagers in Norton Canes to make more use of the club for events. To find out about using the club call 01543 275714.

Enjoy a cuppa and raise charity funds

A RUGELEY garden centre is supporting Macmillan Cancer Support's World's Biggest Coffee Morning event tomorrow (Friday).

Wolseley Bridge Garden Centre is inviting people in for a coffee between 9am and noon. The World's Biggest Coffee Morning is Macmillan Cancer Support's flagship event and last year more than £8million was raised.

Garden Centre manager Ian Byrne said: "We will be pro-viding free tea and coffee and inviting customers to make a donation. We hope lots of people come along."

Charles Byrne, head of corporate partnerships and events at Macmillan Cancer Support, said: "There are more than two million people in the UK living with cancer and every penny we raise will help us reach out to even more people who need our support."

Vintage show sponsor plea

David and Helen Borton from Cannock, with a 1937 Ford Model Y, to promote the Chasewater transport show in aid of the County Air Ambulance

THE organisers of an annual transport show say it needs to find at least £500 in sponsorship for next year's event to go ahead.

The Chasewater transport show is a non-profit making event which raises funds for the Midlands Air Ambulance, while also supporting other local schools and groups.

But as the credit crunch continues to bite, their former sponsor, a family friend who wishes not to be named, is now unable to provide the money for next year's show, due to take place in April. This year's event attracted 6,000 visitors – the most so far.

Organisers Helen Borton and her hus-band David have contacted more than 50 companies for help but with no avail.

The duo need £510 to cover costs for toilet hire, insurance, generator hire and park hire. But despite more than half of the £2,000 show fees coming from pitch hire from traders and caterers the show is strug-gling to make ends meet and expand each year. Mother-of-two Helen, 27, said:"We want to say a huge thank you to our former sponsor as without him the show would never have taken off and we wish him all the very best for the future.

"We don't want something for nothing and will offer any interested companies a complete advertising package.

Stability

"Finances are difficult but we really need the support of local people and businesses to give us the stability to improve the event while continuing to support the Air Ambu-lance. If we can't find this money then there is no way the show can go even ahead.

Hundreds of vintage and classic vehicles, steamers, trade stalls, arena events, dog ability displays and family entertainment are expected at Chasewater Country Park.

To help, call Helen on 01543 500926.

DIM VIEW OF LIGHTING BID

FUNDING for a new £500,000 sports pitch at a Cannock sec-ondary school could be with-drawn if the council does not allow floodlights at the facility to remain open until 10pm.

Residents have issued complaints to the council about the proposed switch-off time, claiming the glare of the floodlights will impact on their homes.

Others to raise objections include an astron-omy group which is based next to the school's playing fields, the Campaign to Protect Rural England, members of the Friends of Cannock Park and golfers who use the park's golf course.

But ahead of Cannock Chase Council's latest planning meeting on the matter, which takes place next Wednesday (October 5), Football Foundation, the investor, said 10pm was the only option they would accept.

Compromise

At a planning meeting on September 14 the council's planning control committee decided to defer consideration of the 8am-10pm proposal. This was to seek clarification of the Football Foundation's exact floodlight opening-hour requirements, with some committee members at the meeting suggesting a 9pm compromise.

But in a letter to the council's planning serv-ices manager John Heminsley, the facilities programme manager at the Football Founda-tion – John Paul Considine – said the founda-tion would not consider investing in the facility if it was to close at 8.30 or 9pm.

"Given the potential threat of the future via-bility of the proposed facility and the loss of essential community use, then this would not be considered a suitable investment for the Foundation if the hours are restricted to 8.30pm and we would not be able to support the project," Mr Considine said. "It is on this basis that nor could we consider investing in the facil-ity if it was to close at 9pm.

"The Foundation and FA has worked extremely hard with both the school and the local authority to help shape this project and our panel members have not only approved the original grant requested, but have also agreed to increase the level of grant significantly to accommodate the financial problems that have arisen as a result of VAT issues. We sincerely hope that the planning committee allows us the opportunity to invest in this facility by agreeing to remove the condition discussed."

A manager at Cannock Town boys club has also defended the 10pm proposal.

Chris Dorrington said people should look at the bigger picture and that the 10pm time was essential to make maximum use of the facility.

She said. "We really struggle for indoor train-ing facilities in Cannock and this would provide facilities for a lot of people – we alone have got 200 children at our club. I've lived by Pye Green Stadium for more 25 years and there was never a problem with the floodlights."

Several letters of objection have been put on the council's website, including ones from the Friends of Cannock Park and the Campaign to Protect Rural England (CPRE).

A technical adviser for CPRE said the exten-sion of evening lighting after 8.30pm would be an inequitable imposition on local residents.

"We strongly suggest that the visual disrup-tion caused by the floodlighting has not been fully comprehended by the proponents of this scheme and will only become evident after its use has been experienced," the letter states.

Another objection, from Cannock resident PH Tranter, asks if thoughts have been given to wildlife in nearby woods.

Tributes follow racetrack death

A RACING boss has paid tribute to a banger racer who died in a crash watched by hundreds of horrified spectators.

David Brian Weare, aged 43, was hit by another car after climbing out of his damaged vehicle when it ran into a fence at Hednesford Hills Raceway last Sunday (September 25).

Crispin Rosevear, of Cornwall-based oval racing group Autospeed, said he was surprised to hear Mr Weare had taken part in the event as he would normally have stuck to racing down south.

He said: "Dave raced with us in rookie bangers and Hednesford is known for racing national bangers which can be a bit more fierce.

"National bangers can be really extreme so it came as a bit of a surprise to hear that he had chosen to go to Hednesford and take part."

Mr Weare, who lived with his wife Sue and their two children in Honiton, East Devon, had been due to take part in an event in Cornwall this weekend.

Mr Rosevear said: "Dave was a regular racer and achieved a lot. He had never had any problems with the rules and regulations."

Mr Rosevear, aged 45, said it is likely that some tribute will be made to the late driver, which may take the form of a trophy or meet being named after him to reflect his popularity.

Three stock racing cars have been impounded by police investigating Mr Weare's death. A probe is now being carried out by Staffordshire Police and Cannock Chase Council.

Nick Hughes, of organisers Incarace Ltd said the company would await the outcome of the inves-tigation before making any decisions about future races.

Witnesses who have not spoken to the police are asked to call Sgt Richard Holt on 0300 1234455.

Housing scheme at site of garages

A VANDAL-hit garage site in Cannock which has lain dormant for years will be developed into housing for disabled and vulnerable people.

Cannock Chase Council's cabinet voted to approve the sale of the site – described as a "pain in the neck" by one planning committee member, Councillor Gordon Alcott.

"This will ensure the area is tidied up once and for all and provides homes for people," he said.

The land, near Woodside Place, Chadsmoor, will be used to build six self-contained flats within a supported housing scheme, four rented bungalows for disabled people and two shared ownership dormer bungalows.

Money raised from the sale of the site to developers Heantun Housing Association will be invested in council housing.

Vulnerable

Councillor Frank Allen, the council's housing portfolio leader, said: "It is a key priority of ours to provide housing for vulnerable people.

"By converting what is mostly derelict land into affordable housing we will be able to fulfil part of that commitment and, at the same time, raise money for further developments elsewhere."

The council originally agreed plans to sell the garage sites in July 2008 and vandals have since repeatedly targeted the site.

Heantun Housing Association is working with Staffordshire County Council on the project.

The county council is carrying out a modernisation programme to improve housing, care and support services for people with learning disabilities.

Windmill home now up for sail

The pink windmill home in Mill Lane, Little Saredon, that is on the market for £650,000

THE owners of a distinctive South Staffordshire home have put the property on the market for £650,000.

With an indoor hot tub, spiralling metal staircases, stained glass windows and fully stocked bar, the interior of this unique windmill home is just as quirky as its striking pink coat.

The four-storey building in Little Saredon has been lovingly extended by owners Neville and Linda Faultless to create a family home full of quirky corners, secret doors and hidden rooms.

The beautifully manicured garden – complete with its own red phone box and Royal Mail post box – hint at the character and charm that lie within. The current mill dates back to 1806. It initially had four sails and is thought to have been built on the site of a medieval mill.

Despite ceasing work by sail in the 1870s it continued to operate by steam until 1930 before being left to fall into a state of disrepair. Mr Faultless bought the mill in 1976 and for the first two years he had to live in a caravan in the garden, while he slowly set about making the property habitable. The 70-year-old said: "I had to start with the garden, because I didn't have any money to start work on the house.

"It was terrible; I remember my dad kept asking me to come home and live with them, but I was determined to get it done."

Mr Faultless, a former ladies hairdresser said: "I bought it because I just loved it and it had so much potential, it was just a passion."

Mr Faultless met his wife Linda not long after he bought the building and they have spent the past 35 years transforming it into the quirky, unique home they have today.

Eccentric

Mrs Faultless, 60, a retired bank worker, said: " I remember I couldn't believe it when I first saw it, but we have worked on it together and it is, and was, a real labour of love."

The couple literally ripped the house apart and even burned its roof off – because Mr Faultless believed it would be faster and more effective than pulling it down – before lovingly putting it back together to reflect their own eccentric taste.

During his time working for an industrial cleaning company Mr Faultless gathered items from all over the Black Country to put the building back together. The three-bedroom property now includes a lounge with gallery, a sitting room, study, family bathroom, refitted kitchen and even a hot tub and sauna.

Each room is uniquely designed and includes items that Mr Faultless has picked up during his working life including the stained-glass windows from a church in the en-suite bathroom and the giant doorbell.

Every room even has its own music system, there are flashing red fairy lights throughout, and the mill even has its own bar.

Mr Faultless said: "I designed the house for parties. That's why I put in the bar. It has its own fully working taps and pipes. It is brilliant at Christmas."

The bar is packed with small wooden tables and chairs, tankards and glasses. The ceiling is covered with items like old racquets, miners' lamps, hats and bells.

In fact, the whole house is covered in quirky items they have picked up on their travels.

The couple have made the windmill their unique family home but Mrs Faultless said: "It has got to the point where we have done all we can to it.

"There is nothing more we want to do to the building, and we want to find a new project."

Legion seeking younger recruits

OLD soldiers in Burntwood are looking to breathe new life into their Royal British Legion branch – by appealing for women and young people to join.

The invitation goes out as the veterans' organisation prepares to commemorate its milestone 90th anniversary.

The Burntwood and District club says it is looking to the future and opened its doors to the community last weekend.

The community fun day, which took place last Saturday at Grangemoor Working men's club in Cannock Road, featured a visit from The Veteran Bandit, a Suzuki bike bearing emblems of various forces' units.

Among other special guests was artist Celia Houghton who is inviting people to help make a collage to celebrate the Royal British Legion's 90th anniversary.

Invited

In recent weeks members have invited the public to take part in evenings with added entertainment.

One was a quiz night and a presentation by the Royal British Legion's Riders Branch, for members with an interest in motorbikes.

Berni Wilkins, spokeswoman for the Burntwood and District branch, said: "We are keen to involve the local community in our organisation and future events. In particular we would like to reach out to women and young people.

"We want to dispel the myth that the Legion is full of old fogeys who fought in the war.

"It's not – there is a good mix of members – we're not all old soldiers sitting around reliving our days in the forces. It's a fun club."

Nightwear invitation

A COMMUNITY church will host a harvest with a difference, swapping canned food for cash donations.

St John's Community Church, Chase Terrace, has decided to help raise money for the Tearfund Harvest Appeal instead of collecting the traditional tins of food.

Guests are invited to don their pyjamas, dressing gowns and slippers to the service on Sunday October 9 at 10.30am, where will be a talk about Dan, a boy from a village in Ogongora, rural Uganda.

Visit www.stjohnscommunitychurch.org.uk for more information.

NUFFIELD health and fitness centre will open its doors for guests to join them for a charity coffee morning.

The event will take place at the centre, on East Cannock Road, Hednesford, from 9.30am until 1pm, this Friday (September 30), raising money for Macmillan as part of the world's biggest coffee morning event.

Duty manager, Lisa Baker, said: "We hold the event every year and always get a good turnout.

"Everyone is welcome to come in for a coffee and try some of our home made cakes."

There will also be a gym challenge for staff and members to show off their skills.

Invitation to a school reunion

FORMER pupils of Chase Terrace Comprehensive School are being sought for a reunion.

People who went to the school between 1966 to 1968 can join in the reunion planned for May 11 next year.

GB hockey star reopens town centre store

James Fair with Wilkinson manager Alison Wyles

A CANNOCK hockey player who plays for Great Britain, has officially re-opened a town centre shop which has had a facelift.

Hockey star James Fair started off the day by cutting the ceremonial ribbon in front of a crowd of eager shoppers at Wilkinson based at Cannock Shopping Centre.

To mark the official re-opening, the first 100 customers through the doors received a free fruity shower gel.

And as shoppers worked up an appetite down the aisles, free cupcakes and packs of Staffordshire Oatcakes were also handed out. Assistant store manager Alison Wyles said: "James is well known in Cannock and on the international stage for his great skills on the hockey pitch, so it was great that we could have a true world class sports star to help re-open the store.

"The store's transformation is unbelievable, it's so much brighter and has a great atmosphere, and we hope our customers will be delighted with the finished result."

The store made a donation to charity to thank James for taking part.

James said: "It was a pleasure to join the Wilkinsons' team on re-opening day and I am extremely grateful for the donation."

How a curious Cornish cat got lost, 250 miles from home

Family in appeal over their missing moggie

A CAT from Cornwall has gone missing from its seaside home and is believed to be wandering the streets of Penkridge.

The six-year-old moggy made the 250-mile trip to the Midlands with holidaymakers from Penkridge who had been on a caravan break to the resort of Polzeath and thought she was a stray.

They arranged to return the cat to its distraught owners after the misunderstanding was discovered – but the pet has since escaped. Now the owners, Peter and Jane Craske, are appealing to local residents to look out for the black, white and ginger pet, called Esme.

Missing moggy Esme

They have driven up to Penkridge to visit the home in Filance Lane where she was brought up, and put up posters appealing for help in tracing her.

Mr Craske, aged 45, who runs a surf school, said: "We were obviously horrified that she was taken in the first place. We've had her since she was a kitten and she doesn't look or behave like a stray. Our garden is only a short hop from the caravan park and when the holidaymakers light up the barbecues in the summer, she's over there like a shot."

Helpful

The owners of the caravan park got in touch with the holidaymakers who confirmed they had taken her and would return her but in the meantime the cat went missing. The Craskes spent two days in Penkridge putting up posters and talking to local people.

Mr Craske said: "Everyone that we've spoken to in Penkridge has been amazingly helpful. Obviously being 250 miles away makes it very hard for us to look but we're hopeful that someone will recognise her photo and take her to a local vets as she is microchipped."

Anyone who spots the cat is asked to call Jane Craske on 0779 225 9028.

Free entry to leisure leagues

A BURNTWOOD football league is offering free entry to new teams who need some opposition, as it looks to expand.

The Leisure Leagues competition takes place on Sundays, Mondays and Thursdays at Burntwood Leisure Centre, off High Street in Chasetown.

Senior manager Chris Rowntree said: "We thought by waiving the usual joining costs it would encourage those wanting a competitive game to get involved."

The weekly match fee is £3 and successful teams will be in with a chance of playing at the national tournament against the best small-sided football teams in the country.

For more information on the leagues and their set-up visit www.leisureleagues.net or they can telephone 0845 230 2340.

A ROYAL British Legion group has held an open weekend to encourage new members to join and to mark the organisation's 90th anniversary.

Members of the Burntwood and District club opened their doors to the community at Grangemoor Working Men's Club, Cannock Road, which coincided with the released of a new book.

Berni Wilkins, spokesman for the branch, said members were particularly trying to reach out to women and young people.

"We want to dispel the myth that the Legion is full of old fogeys who fought in the war. It's not," Berni said.

More are caught without licence

HUNDREDS of residents in Cannock have been caught watching television without a valid licence – and the excuses are getting worse.

TV Licensing has revealed more than 370 television viewers across the Chase were watching the box illegally between January and August, and when confronted three reasons came out on top.

Excuses from an affair with the postman who stopped delivering the mail, to children behaving badly while trying to purchase a licence and even claims the TV is only on to calm anxious pets frequently cropped up. Those caught without a licence all faced a fee of up to £1,000.

Simon Johnson, Midlands co-ordinator for AdviceUK said: "AdviceUK works with TV Licensing to raise awareness of the different ways you can pay for your licence, including over the phone, online, or in weekly instalments at a PayPoint outlet."

Club dream fulfilled as £1m base completed

THE MIDLANDS' biggest amateur football club has fulfilled a decade-long dream after work was completed ion its new £1m clubhouse.

Wyrley Juniors will celebrate with an open day this weekend.

The building in Long Lane, Essington, has four changing rooms, two refereess' changing rooms, a kitchen, medical room and a function room. It will be home to the club's 45 teams and 700 players.

The clubhouse will also act as a village hall for the wider community.

Bosses spent 10 years identifying land, agreeing a lease, obtaining two planning permissions and raising £1.15m. More than £30,000 was spent on planning applications and surveys before a brick was laid.

The open day on Saturday, October 1, will feature guided tours of the new facility and a 10-hour sponsored football match involving all the club's teams.

Wyrley Juniors' chairman Keith Hardy said: "Our vision has at last come to fruition. The open day will be our opportunity to showcase the efforts of hundreds of volunteers who have given time, sweat and money in getting Wyrley Juniors Football Club its own base."

The building project, which began in January, received £683,840 from the Football Foundation, and a grant of £245,000 from the Football Association.

The rest of the cash – more than £200,000 – was raised by the club itself over a decade of fundraising events. A walk to the top of Snowdon earlier this year by a group of 40 players, managers, parents and friends raised more than £7,000 towards the total.

Last month Wyrley Juniors was announced as the FA's community club of the year, with former Liverpool legend Ian Rush presenting Keith Hardy with the award at Wembley.

The club comprises four men's teams, a women's ' team, 29 boys' teams and 11 girls' teams and also runs academies for boys and girls aged four to six.

Entrance to the open day is free, with parking available around the development.

Ready teddy go for fun day

TOTS enjoyed a special day with their favourite cuddly toys at a Burntwood nursery. A teddy bears fun day was held at Busy Bees.

Craftsman Jack Sheldon brought some home-made teddy rides, while cash was raised for the Rainbow Trust.

Youngsters were invited to bring their own bears which were given a 'security check' on arrival on one of Jack's mini X-ray machines. There was also a bear boat ride and a teddy high wire.

Claire Kniveton, one of the organisers, said: "It was a fantastic event. There must have been 100 teddies on site and any child who didn't have one could adopt a bear for the day for £1.

"They put them through the rides by turning handles, they loved it. We were very lucky to get Jack for the day."

She added: "The mascot Brewster Bear was a great crowd-puller and we also had donkey rides in the car park, face-painting and stalls, and a teddy bears' picnic."

Dozens of youngsters passed through the door during the four-hour event at St Matthew's Sports and Social Club in Shaftsbury Drive.

WORK has begun on flattening an historic Hednesford ballroom which closed its doors in the summer after staging 60 years of dancing.

The Aquarius Ballroom in Victoria Street was a magnet for dancers from across the county.

Supporters waged a 12-year campaign to save it when the redevelopment was first mooted but they lost their battle and two farewell dances, the Grand Finale and The Last Waltz, were held in May. Bulldozers moved on to the site at the end of last week to make way for a supermarket.

Closed

The redevelopment is part of the £50 million scheme to regenerate the town.

The Army Cadet Force drill hall is also set to be razed to the ground.

At the heart of the new redevelopment, being carried out by St Modwen, will be a Tesco store built on stilts to accommodate a car park underneath.

Before it closed, the Aquarius had thousands of people through its doors each week. It hosted dance classes, including zumba and burlesque as well as the more gentle tea dances and old-time waltz sessions.

Big bands, soul and Motown nights and over-30s' evenings were also popular weekend events. Many of the groups which used the Aquarius are now based at the Civic Ballroom in Beecroft Road, Cannock, until a replacement 10,000 sq ft community hall is built.

The developers are saving a block section of the dance floor of the old building to install in the new building which will be above shops in the Victoria Shopping Park.

Eyes down as bingo club on move

THE number's up for a bingo club as it prepares to move to make way for a town centre redevelopment.

Hednesford Bingo and Social Club will hear the final shouts of "house" on Saturday, October 15. The club, in Victoria Street, will then move to the new Chase Gateway development off Rugeley Road. It is part of the £50m town centre regeneration scheme.

The club, previously seen as one of the luckiest in the country following a series of big money wins, is moving as the current site is needed for the new Victoria Shopping Park which will include an 80,000sqft Tesco store.

Club owner Andrew Reilly, who runs the business through his company Hollywood Clubs Ltd, said the name would transfer to the new site.

Mr Reilly said a preview night was being held at the new single-storey club which will be able to accommodate 500 people.

The current two-storey building has a capacity of 350. "We will be opening for seven days a week from October 20," said Mr Reilly.

"The current club is an old one, and we want to take some of the tradition with us. A lot of our members are of the older generation, and we want to cater for them as well as provide entertainment for all generations."

Developers St Modwen are constructing the new club to enable Hednesford Bingo to relocate. The £50m project also includes a new cadet building to replace the old drill hall.

Tesco and the non-food retail units at Victoria Shopping Park are scheduled to be handed over to occupiers in time for Christmas 2012.

Policy to regulate sex shops is backed

TOUGH new restrictions are being put in place to prevent more sex shops and cinemas springing up in the Cannock Chase district.

Deputy council leader Councillor Janos Toth said tougher regulations on shops, cinemas and pole-dancing clubs in the Black Country could lead to them springing up in towns like Cannock and Rugeley.

The council's cabinet last week gave its support to a new policy to control sex establishments in the district. It will now go before the full council for final approval.

Councillor Toth said there was currently just one sex shop in Heath Hayes and one pole-dancing venue in Cannock.

"Although we only have a small number of these establishments we have to be careful. There are a lot in neighbouring areas," he said.

Licensed

Councillor Toth said if Cannock did not have a policy in place and others did, it could lead to more sex shops moving into the area.

"This policy will protect us and mean we have a structure in place to properly regulate them."

The district policy has undergone full public consultation. The new policy is needed because a change in law requires lap-dancing clubs to be licensed if they offer that form of entertainment more than 11 times in any 12 months.

The policy sets out the procedure for applying for licences, and mandatory and discretionary grounds for refusal.

School hosts an open day

AN open day is being held at Cannock's independent Chase Academy this weekend.

The event at the school in St John's Road, takes place on Saturday, October 1, from 11am to 3pm. The academy caters for children from nursery to A-Level.

Schemes are ready to move on

DEVELOPER Pritchard Group is in negotiation with major property development groups to move ahead with two new schemes in the town. The Avon Plaza and Lakeside Park developments have been on hold since the start of the economic downturn.

Group chairman Fred Pritchard said the group had just put in place new facilities with Lloyds Banking Group, which has been his company's bank for 40 years, ready for the next phase of the business's development.

At the beginning of the year Mr Pritchard moved from the role of chief executive to chairman and announced a change in strategy.

He said the group was moving from holding investment property to carrying out more development. He said: "The Pritchard Group is regenerating into a property investment and trading group capable of sustaining a portfolio of commercial and residential properties and completing new development in joint venture partnerships."

Mr Pritchard and new chief executive Charles Tippet, supported by a team of professionals are implementing the Group's new strategy.

"The first development is already under construction by Bovis Homes at St George's, Stafford. The next developments will include Avon Plaza, Cannock and Lakeside Park in Bridgtown," said Mr Pritchard.

Avon Plaza is a £25 million project to provide a hotel, eight-screen cinema, bowling alley, restaurant, shops and apartments off Walsall Road. The £22 million Lakeside Park scheme would be a mix of homes and business units.

Bidders bag rare items at art auction

AN Anglo-Indian ivory and horn games box from the mid 19th Century was sold to an online bidder from the United States for £6,500 at Penkridge auctioneers Cuttlestones latest fine art sale. The Vizagapatam games box had been estimated to make between £1,200 and £1,800.

A children's double seated rocking horse carrying the maker's mark Biddick & Co., Bridgwater & Burnham On Sea, achieved £800 against its estimate of £60 to £100. And an Art Nouveau copper rectangular wall mirror fetched £1,200.

Head auctioneer Ben Gamble said: "The results of sale are testament to the fact that, regardless of whether you're looking at furniture, jewellery, silver or decorative collectable items, quality will always sell and achieve good prices.

Cuttlestones' next fine art auction is on Friday, December 2.

Court viewing

AN open evening at Cannock Magistrates Court is being held today (Thursday). Members of the public can go along to the court in Wolverhampton Road between 4.30pm and 6.30pm to find out about how the local justice system operates.

Cannock Chase MP Aidan Burley will also attend.

Jessica's in the spotlight with award

A SURPRISE lay in wait for a talented young drama student after a star performance – an award for her achievements.

Jessica Rowe, aged 18, had finished her performance at the Prince of Wales Centre when she was surprised on stage.

Jessica, who has been in the production The Angel of Adulation had to miss her school's prize-giving evening due to her commitment.

But her mother Hilary, and Jessica Smith from Cheslyn Hay Sport and Community High School, were keen for her not to miss out, so they decided to go to the theatre to make the special presentation in front of the audience instead.

Hilary said: "We were so proud she was being given the drama award 2011 for the school but didn't want her to miss out, so I thought we would giver her this as a little surprise in its place.

"We are so proud of her and so glad we could do this for her." Jessica, from Essington, will be studying Theatre and Professional Practice at Coventry University this year but hopes to continue working with the Cannock theatre company in her holiday time.

Essential Productions is looking for actors for future shows and crew to help backstage on show nights.

Meeting call on quarry plans for motorcycles

A PUBLIC meeting may be held over the controversial proposals to use a quarry and surrounding woodland at Huntington for motorcycle racing.

South Staffordshire MP Gavin Williamson says he hopes to persuade the owners of Shoal Hill Quarry to attend a meeting to hear the views of the local community.

Mr Williamson has already had a behind closed doors meeting with Inglewood Investments, the owners of the disused quarry which was used recently for an off-road biking event.

He has asked them what the future holds for Shoal Hill Quarry.

Mr Williamson said he was shocked at the state of the quarry after surveying the site which was used by bikers from throughout the country during a weekend meet that was put on by World of Riding Events last month.

Mr Follows previously told The Chronicle's sister newspaper the Express & Star that the event had been hampered by people sabotaging some of the bike route and he had witnessed vandalism during the meet on August 13 and 14.

The MP hopes that local councillors will also attend a public meeting it agreement can be reached. He said: "I felt that a public meeting was something they were not keen to do. I think it was felt by both sides that the events were not a success.

Worried

"There's an ongoing issue of what to do with Shoal Hill Quarry going forward, it's got to be the right thing for everyone involved, especially people living near the quarry."

Mr Williamson said he is worried that the event has encouraged people to use the site for illegal off-road biking.

He added: "There are still a lot of unanswered questions regarding the site being left in a mess and addressing concerns that the event has encouraged more illegal biking on Shoal Hill.

"We need to get people around the table and work out what would be the best type of use for the area and get things on a more positive footing."

During the event, local councillors and residents complained that dust engulfed their homes and they had to stay indoors to avoid the noise.

Kevin pitches in with restoration plan

Kevin Phillips' home at the grand Lodge, Upper Longdon, near Rugeley

THE architectural firm hired to restore footballer Kevin Phillips' luxury £1.5m home near Rugeley has been shortlisted for a national award.

And director Glen Smith said it would not have happened without the former England and Albion striker who has ploughed more than £500,000 into the project.

Phillips, who now plays for Blackpool, and wife Julie moved into the Grade II listed Grand Lodge in Hill Ridware, Rugeley, last year but neighbours opposed plans to add a wing to the five-bedroomed property. They did not want the Lodge, part of the historic Beau Dessert estate, to be modernised. But architects Park House Design, Wheelhouse Road, Rugeley, won special permission for the extension.

Stunning

Mr Smith said the house could have fallen into disrepair, but now it looked stunning. The firm is in the national final of the Local Authority Building Control Excellence Awards.

Date is set for centre to open

AN official date has been confirmed for the opening of a community centre in a Staffordshire town after a £400,000 refurbishment – with residents invited to take a look inside.

Hednesford Town Council will be handed the keys to Pye Green Community Centre building at the end of October before a public open day takes place on November 5.

Plans are afoot to plant a time capsule at the opening event which will include pictures of the builders, and a data recording of people living in Hednesford.

Important

There will also be contributions from local schoolchildren and a copy of The Chronicle's sister newspaper the Express & Star inside.

Hednesford Town Council clerk Peter Harrison said: "We feel it is important to let people see what's going on."

Mr Harrison said the council is in the process of securing a VIP to officially open the new community centre.

Contractor Niken Construction has kept to its promise of having the building open by the end of October.

Teacher's resignation

THE head of a Staffordshire primary school who was suspended in July has resigned from his post. Parents have received a letter saying Trevor Hancock has quit following a change in personal circumstances and ill health.

In the short term, deputy head Robbie Walker will continue to be acting head of St Peter's Church of England Primary, Hednesford.

Robert Heath, who took over as chairman of governors following Mr Hancock's suspension has written to the parents of the 427 pupils to explain that Mr Walker will be supported by experienced head Sue Winson of Gentleshaw Primary School.

Rat-run fears over calming measures

COUNTY Council highways engineers have set out proposals to cut speeding in Heath Hayes and Wimblebury.

The works, costing £130,000, have been earmarked at the B4154 Hednesford Road in Heath Hayes and Wimblebury Road and John Street between Heath Hayes and Littleworth. The proposals were presented at a meeting of the Heath Hayes, Norton Canes and Rawnsley Community Forum, where they received a mixed response.

Councillor Bob Todd said the roads should be left as they were. He said a planned pelican crossing in John Street, Wimblebury, between Scott Street and Glover Street, would be in the wrong place for people to cross.

Project manager for the highways design team John Commins said one option for Hednesford Road was to have speed cushions between Five Ways island and Hayes Way and one new pedestrian crossing.

Pressure

Another option was to restrict the road for the use by buses and bicycles only between Chapel Street and Five Ways, with Chapel Street made one way.

Mr Commins said this would reduce pressure on Five Ways island. He said the schemes would go out to public consultation.

Resident Lorraine Astbury said she there was not a problem with speeding in Heath Hayes.

She feared if the scheme in Heath Hayes was implemented it would result in "rat-runs" along roads like Stafford Street and Bank Street.

"From the traders' point of view it would also take people away from the village centres," she said.

Forum chairman Councillor John Bernard said: "If the majority of people say they do not want these schemes the county council will use the money somewhere else."

Charity in plea over car seats

A NATIONAL charity based in Cannock is calling on the Government to do more to help families of disabled youngsters who need car seats.

The Newlife Foundation wants a reclassification of the expensive seats. It says such a move would allow statutory services to be able to fund them and prevent parents from being required to pay thousands of pounds in some cases.

It is a legal requirement for children under 12 to sit in a child seat unless they are taller than 4ft 5in. Newlife says the price of specialist equipment keeps rising. Standard child seats can cost as little as £50 but specialist seating for specific disability needs retails at between £180 and £2,500. Statutory services will not foot the bill for these seats.

Last year Newlife funded 226 car seats at an average cost of £922 each.

Golden duo celebrate 50 years of bliss

IT was love at first sight for Alexer Harlow when he set eyes on future bride Ann – but it took him 18 months to ask her out.

The couple, of Butts Way, Norton Canes, have now celebrated their golden wedding and marked the anniversary at home with their three sons and eight grandchildren.

Alexer, 80, and Ann, 70, spent their early married life in Malmesbury, Wiltshire, where they grew up and moved to Norton in 1967.

The couple have shared an interest in breeding and showing chihuahuas and horses and, more recently, have devoted their time to gardening.

Helicopter forced to drop in at school

Cheslyn Hay Sport and Community High School pupils return to class after getting a closer look at a helicopter

Pupils make most of emergency landing

Year 10 pupil Jefferson Haddon in the cockpit

A HELICOPTER travelling from Gatwick to Manchester was forced to make an emergency landing at Cheslyn Hay Sport and Community High School.

The private aircraft, affected by poor visibility due to heavy rain, came down in the sports field the Saredon Road school.

Staff were quickly on the scene to investigate. And once they were satisfied that the pilot was unhurt and there was no risk to pupils, they made the most of the visit.

The school timetable was rearranged to enable design and technology students to quiz the pilot about helicopter engineering and take a close look at the aircraft.

The helicopter came down in a corner of the school playing field just after 9.30am on Tuesday, September 20. Lessons were in progress at the time and the landing went unnoticed by all except a member of the office staff.

Pilot Nick Sutton, a businessman from the south coast, recovered from his scare and turned teacher for the next two and a half hours to explain the dynamics of helicopter flight.

Headteacher John Martin said: "He took the decision to bring his aircraft down when his visibility was suddenly severely reduced.

"He was able to land in an isolated spot a very long distance from the school's buildings.

"Once we had done health and safety checks, it was a golden opportunity for students to hear from the pilot and see the helicopter close up."

The pilot continued on his journey just after noon when the skies had cleared.

Praise from bus users as service is extended

WE would like to thank our councillors who have successfully argued for an improvement to the bus services for the Boley Park area.

Following the withdrawal of the No. 12 service, the No. 991 was extended to Boley Park and ran every two hours – with not the most convenient timing.

After some lobbying by residents, our councillors have secured an additional service for us. From September 5, the new No. 901 bus now runs between Austin Cote Lane island and the bus station at times between the 991 services so that we now once again have an effective hourly service.

Thank you to all the councillors involved.

GRATEFUL BOLEY PARK RESIDENT

Bored with letter writer

IS the number of people submitting letters really so low that we need to keep receiving the supposed wisdom of Helen of Hednesford.

We get it Helen – you don't like the Government. But what on earth has our MP's support for the unemployed got to do with the price of electricity in France?

On some blogs there is the facility to stop downloading comments from posters you consider too boring or repetitive. I am beginning to wish the same could be achieved with newspapers.

BORED WITH HELEN OF HEDNESFORD

Thanks issued over trip

ON behalf of the senior citizens of Rugeley and Brereton, we would like to thank everyone who helped to finance their recent trip to Southport.

This includes Rugeley Lions, Rugeley Power Station, Brereton and Rugeley Councils and Staffordshire Local Community Funding, supported by Councillors Ray Easton and Geoff Martin.

Without their generous support, it would be impossible to run this annual event.

Sort out national insurance – plea

I BELIEVE the National Insurance scheme is unfair. People have contributed far more years than the present new rules requirement of 30 years contributions, in order to receive a full state pension upon retirement.

For all the contributors who have paid more than the 30 years, should not a refund be forthcoming? Now that the maximum number of years has been paid, why are we still paying?

All those who have now paid their dues should receive their pensions as soon as women reach age 60, and men reach 65, as they quite rightly expected. Where has all this surplus of national insurance gone? Certainly not to its intended recipients who are told that they have to wait longer for their entitlements.

All the people who have met their criteria and far exceeded it should have the quality of life automatically and those in care should not have to pay for their care again by being forced to sell their homes. Let's be fair.

Perhaps our MPs will get their acts together and get it sorted.

Stalling claim on shared services

THE Cannock Chase Labour administration continues to deliberately stall on further planned shared services. This will cost this community at a time when it can least afford it.

Already this initiative is on target to save our council at least £470k this year.

There is an enthusiasm and a willingness for the hard work necessary among officers of both Cannock Chase District and Stafford Borough Councils to see the programme succeed, so why are we now dithering at the Council Tax payer's expense?

A recent independent Audit Commission report has commended the way that the two councils have conducted the service sharing process. There is no excuse for not building on this success.

So come on Labour, stop stalling and get on with the job of running Cannock Chase District Council to the benefit of the residents and stop pampering to individual Labour councillors who either don't understand or don't want to work towards getting best value in all the services we deliver.

Control your pets if you have them

RE: The letter regarding dog/cat fouling, Chronicle, September 15.

We are fed up with having to remove cat faeces from our garden borders. So far this year we have lost more than half of our bedding plants because of cats spraying on them.

"Maxine from Hednesford" says people should spray the cats with water if they stray into their gardens and that they can buy cat repellent.

Why should we have to go to the trouble of spraying someone else's cats with water or removing their faeces from our garden – we choose not to have a cat or dog. If we were able to find out whose cats they were, we would gladly dig all the excrement up and take it round to their house for disposal.

Why should we have to go to the expense of buying cat repellent? Is Maxine prepared to purchase repellent for all the gardens polluted by her nine cats?

We also live by a primary school and notice many irresponsible dog owners who fail to clear up after their animals, leaving the pavement a mess for children to walk through. A simple answer is if you can't control your pets, don't have them.

Prince's Trust team looks for community project to undertake

THE Prince's Trust and Stoke on Trent College organise a 12-week personal development programme in the Cannock area for 16 -25-year-olds.

The group come from all backgrounds and work as volunteers.

As part of the scheme we are looking for community projects for the volunteer group to undertake.

These could be anything from clearing and renovating an overgrown area, painting community buildings, clearing up unused areas, putting together food parcels or any project that benefits the local community.

The project will be undertaken by approximately 15 young people and can either last for one day or two weeks depending on the amount of work to be completed.

We basically help people who think that an area needs a spruce up.

We provide all the labour and, where we can, all of the materials.

The team of youngsters manages the project and part of this is for the group to source and locate materials for the job and also to see if we can get them donated as well.

But we will also undertake fundraising activities to raise money to complete the project.

If people do have any work we could undertake to benefit your community I would love to hear from them or if they know of anyone who may be interested in us helping them, please forward my details to them.

The next Prince's Trust Team starts on November 14 and the group will be undertaking its project in late December.

If you think your organisation has something suitable please contact me on 07557 319414 or email beth.alvey@stokecoll.ac.uk

Treasure hunt at trust HQ

YOUNG visitors can become pirates for the day when they visit Staffordshire Wildlife Trust's headquarters.

The Wolseley Centre has launched pirate-themed birthday parties.

Birthday boys and girls and their friends will become trainee pirates and will be taken on a treasure hunt around the grounds of the Wolseley Bridge base.

Community and education officer Lynsey Eastwood, said: "I'll be setting lots of challenges and adventures for my young charges to see if they are fit to be members of my crew."

The funds raised will go towards the trust's work in protecting wildlife.

Contact Lynsey on 01889 880195 or e-mail l.eastwood@staffs-wildlife.org.uk

People and Wildlife Officer Lucy Swinnerton promotes the pirate themed parties at the Wolseley centre

Popular players on oche

POPULAR players Bobby George and Wayne Mardle are heading to Penkridge next month to take part in a charity darts exhibition.

The pair will be at the Hatherton Country House Hotel, Pinfold Lane, on Friday, October 28.

George is now a co-presenter for the BDO world championship on the BBC, while Mardle commentates for PDC events on Sky Sports.

Fans will get the chance to pit their wits against the players, who will play a leg against seven punters each drawn at random by their ticket numbers.

George and Mardle will then go head-to-head in a best of three contest.

All profits will go to the Air Ambulance with tickets, costing £10, available from 07974 578103.

Lantern event light at the end of tunnel

TRADERS in Rugeley are to make light work of a lantern festival in the town.

District council chiefs decided the annual festive parades, in Cannock and Rugeley, would be scrapped this year as it cost too much.

Rugeley Traders' Association has, however, said it is keen to ensure the event goes ahead in its town. And, despite the lack of funding from the district council, it aims to make sure December's event is bigger and better than ever before.

Angi Cooney of the traders' grou, said it had been keen to keep the festival going, and said plans were in place for it to be held in the town's market square. The lantern parade is scheduled to take place on December 9 – a week after Rugeley's late night Christmas shopping day.

Angels

Angi said: "This year we are not going to hold it in the park, but in the town centre, and the procession will be held through every main street leading to the centre where the different community groups will meet up.

"We are inviting local primary schools to also supply us with their own Joseph, Mary, angels and shepherds so we can then have a 15 minute carol service. The event is going to be about the meaning of Christmas."

Last year the lantern festival cost the council around £7,300, and 1,000 people attended the events at Elmore Park, Rugeley and Hednesford Park.

Cannock Chase Council refused to continue funding the festival, saying its decision was due to "budget pressures" and "reductions in staff numbers".

Brereton and Ravenhill parish councillors said they would not be able to afford to fund the event themselves as it would take too much money from their small budget.

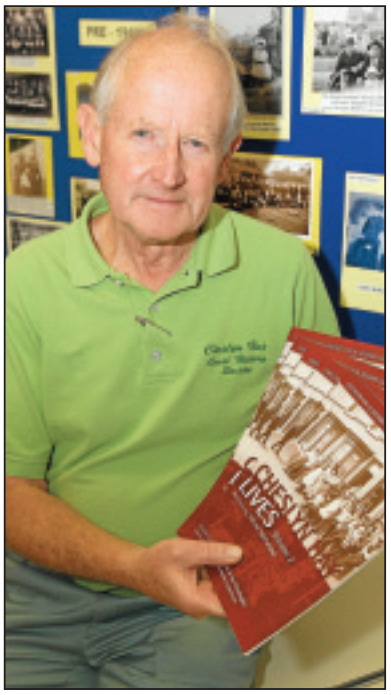
Leading names are prominent in group's second publication

Sports stars in the picture for village history's new chapter



Cheslyn Hay & District Local History Society chairman Trevor McFarlane launches Cheslyn Hay Lives Volume 2 at the group's annual exhibition

THE author of a new history book has taken a trip down memory lane capturing Cheslyn Hay's sporting heroes from the past century.

Trevor McFarlane was on hand at Cheslyn Hay and District Local History Society's annual exhibition last weekend to talk about his latest release – Cheslyn Hay Lives Volume Two.

The 64-page book features photographs and memories of life in the small south Staffordshire village with one chapter dedicated to some of the area's top sporting greats.

Football legend Charlie Moore, who ended up playing for Manchester United, helped set the tone from the early 20th century. It was from then sprinter Billy Jones, boxer Charlie Towle, cricketer Fred 'Mucklelump' Altree and clay pigeon shooter Mac Wootton all emerged as heroes of their sport putting Cheslyn Hay on the map. Speedway rider Dave Parry,

by SARAH HAZELWOOD

who rode for and managed Wolves, also features. He now owns Parrys International Coaches and sponsors the Wolves speedway team.

Another with Wolves connections is the footballer Andy Thompson, who attended school in Cheslyn Hay and went on to make more than 370 appearances for Wolves after signing from West Brom alongside Steve Bull.

Dennis Westcott, who once scored more than 40 goals in a season at Wolves – a record later broken by Bull – married a Cheslyn Hay girl Dorothy and they lived in Low Street.

Westcott, who died of leukaemia at the age of 43 in 1960, hit the net more than 100 times for the Molineux club, in just 128 games.

Other chapters in the book include a nostalgic look back at life at the Park House, the health service, the village bobby, the Hackett family, Low Street, and war on the home front – right up to the 70s.

Last weekend's free exhibition, at the village hall, in Pinfold Lane, featured a local family tree history display and more than 8,000 photographs of the surrounding area from a yesteryear.

Untold

Mr McFarlane, who is also the chairman of Cheslyn Hay and District Local History Society, was helped in his work by members Darren Butler, Sue Washington, Mike Belcher and Bob Brevitt.

He said: "Included in Volume Two are many untold stories of events and characters of the village that have been brought to light at the Stafford Records Office."

The book, which costs £4, is on sale now.

Anyone wanting more information on the book or has an interest in joining the society or helping with research can contact Trevor on 01922 414772.

District counting cost of fly-tipping

FLY-TIPPERS are evading justice across Cannock Chase – with just one successful prosecution from more than 500 offences in 12 months.

The district council secured just one conviction from 538 fly-tipping reports in 2010/11 – or 0.2 per cent of investigations. The highest conviction rate was in South Staffordshire, where 2.5 per cent or 11 out of 435 offences resulted in successful prosecutions.

Jason Mohr, managing director of Britain's largest rubbish clearance company AnyJunk, wants councils to be free to launch civil actions against suspects.

Structure

He said: "Relying on the criminal justice system to deal with fly-tipping imposes a much higher burden of proof, is slow and expensive, and evidently isn't delivering an appropriate success rate."

The Government says it has no plans to change the law.

More than two-and-a-quarter tons of waste containing dangerous asbestos was dumped in Newlands Lane near Heath Hayes, Cannock, earlier this month.

Deputy council leader Councillor Janos Toth said: "Incidents like this cost the council dearly and unfortunately we all end up footing the bill, it's a crime against the community at large."

Lucy Fairhurst, aged five, Harry Ridgway, six, his brother Jack, nine with Gavin Williamson MP, walking bus co-ordinator Trish Walters, Jo Ridgway, Councillor Cath Williams, Sally Fairhurst and Simon Bott

MP joins walking bus

SOUTH Staffordshire MP Gavin Williamson visited pupils in Great Wyrley to see their walking bus. Walking bus co-ordinators at Landywood Primary welcomed the MP on their morning run.

The Holly Lane school currently runs two walking routes on a Tuesday. Members of staff are keen to see this boosted, but this requires more volunteers to come forward.

Trish Walters, the school's personal social health and economic education co-ordinator, said: "We would be very happy to hear from volunteers or other parents."

The Tuesday walks have been running for the last three years from Gorsey Lane and Landywood Snooker Club. To help or for more information, call 01922 857020.

Amusing talk with a touch of pathos

THE September meeting began with a warm welcome from the president Sandy Hobbs and apologies from absent members.

Maureen Davis was also welcomed back after her stay in hospital recently.

After the usual formalities, the minutes of the last meeting were read by secretary Elaine and the financial report by treasurer Rosemary, Mrs Hobbs introduced the speaker for the evening, Penny Wheat.

The title of her talk was "Behind the Bars" – a very interesting and sometimes amusing account of her correspondence with people in prison in the USA.

There was also a touch of pathos too, as members heard of the efforts she had made to keep in touch with some of her friends over the years, including visits to the States. Mrs Wheat had brought along a display of memorabilia such as hand-made Christmas cards, portraits and letters which she has collected over the years. Mary Russell gave the vote of thanks.

After the refreshment break, Mrs Hobbs gave details of forthcoming events, which include the hosting of the Heathside Group meeting in October.

The raffle was won by June, and the competition 'A Watch' was won by Sue, Diane and Mary. The ever-popular bring and buy sale was a great success.

Mrs Hobbs closed the meeting and wished everyone a safe journey home.

Meetings are on the first Wednesday of each month at 7.30pm at St John's Church Hall, Heath Hayes.Visitors are always welcome.

On October 5, the speaker will be Barbara Marshall who will help the group to have a "Crafty Christmas".

SOROPTIMISTS

Raising awareness of trafficking

MEMBERS of SI Cannock & District were part of Freshers' Week at Cannock College this September. They joined with other organisations to give information to students embarking on new courses.

Soroptimists were promoting the anti-trafficking Purple Teardrop Campaign and during the day spoke to more than 100 students and members of staff.

The majority of students had an understanding of the issue and were keen to help to raise others' awareness and to learn more themselves, particularly those whose work will ultimately take them into the health sector or into work in the probation service.

Students were asked to put the Crimestoppers number – 0800 555 111 – into their mobile phones so that if they ever have concerns about an incident they can immediately give that information to the police confidentially and anonymously. This received a very positive response. Many showed their further support by purchasing a Purple Teardrop pin to wear.

Further information can be obtained from www.purpleteardrop.org.uk

Ladies help celebrate Agnes' 90th birthday

CANNOCK WI

THE president welcomed guests Rita Kingston Marion Kirkham and Sybil Stimpson to the September meeting.

Birthday greetings were given to Del Johnson, Doris Westwood and Susan Brookes. Love and best wishes went to Anne Brookes who is still rather poorly.

Secretary Chris Pace read matters arising from the last meeting and forthcoming events from SFWI. There is a Thornton's chocolate evening, a Christmas workshop and Tatton Park evening. The new members' evening at Rugeley WI is on October 17 and on December 10, the WI choir will be at the Lichfield Cathedral WI Carol Service.

The president reminded members of the Annual Council Meeting on October 18 with broadcaster and best-selling author Jeremy Spake as speaker.

Members were reminded of the group meeting at Hayes Green on October 27 with David Bartley as speaker. The social secretaries discussed the Christmas lunch-eon and 2012 holiday to Oban in Scotland.

Speaker was Julie Armstrong was who gave an interesting talk on Aids for Sensory Loss. Mary Fullelove gave the vote of thanks.

A lovely birthday buffet was provided by Agnes Overton, who celebrated her 90th year on September 24.

The ladies all sang happy birthday and then received a slice of cake followed by champagne.

Agnes was presented with a bouquet.

The next meeting is on October 13 at 10.30am in St Lukes Church hall. the speaker is Ken Giles and the competition a funny poem.

A busy few months ahead

CANNOCK LIONS

AUGUST saw the Lions prepare for the next few months ahead.

The group has begun to organise the SSAFA Christmas lunch, a Halloween party, ladies night and Christmas lights switch-on for both Hednesford and Cannock.

Money has been donated to the local street friend project and to archer Philippa Taylor, an Olympic hopeful.

The club was also involved in helping to inform the public of the digital switchover. The jewellery sale at Newlife is a regular project which members helping out on Saturdays. There were also last-minute preparations for the Charter Night on September 23 which had a medieval theme.

Tricia Logan became the Lions Club's newest member, yet another lady. The club now has 18 lady members and 10 men and a busy few months ahead are expected.

Jobs fair a success as hundreds attend

HUNDREDS of jobseekers turned out for an employment fair in Cannock

The event, organised by Chase MP Aidan Burley, was held at South Staffordshire College, at The Green on Friday (September 23) and was hailed as a great success. It attracted around 350 job hunters through the door – and 60 apprentice positions were filled during the event.

More than 40 businesses took part from both the private and public sectors, from the NHS to the Army, Staffordshire Police, logistics and training firms.

Mr Burley said he was happy with the number of people who had walked through the doors.

"There have been a good range of stands here, so hopefully there has been something for everyone," he said.

"We have a very high unemployment rate in the Cannock Chase area.

"There are 2,300 people out of work of job seeking age – 16 to 65-year-olds. That is five per cent of the area's working population.

Kathleen Davis from Allied Health Care in Cannock at the job fair with Chase MP Aidan Burley

Turnout

"In comparison, Stafford has two per cent unemployment. So for local people looking for work, this gives them an opportunity to be linked with the businesses," he added.

Mr Burley said that even if one person got a job through the fair, it would make it worth it.

Helen George, a regional recruiter for Allied Healthcare Group said they were pleased with the high turnout on the day.

"We have had some really good strong candidates sign up. We wanted to come here to see what people were out there," she said.

"We have just been given a contact with the local authority to recruit carers for the area, so this was just perfect," she added.

Katy Cotton, aged 23, from Rugeley, was a visitor to the event. She said: "I have just got back from studying musical theatre at university. I am here to look for administration or office work.

"It is really good to come here and find out more and I'm sure it will be really helpful for me."

Dawn Richards, of Smart a training provider who work to get apprenticeships for 16 to 24-year-olds said they were also pleased with the number of visitors to the fair.

"We aren't locally based so to come to Cannock today is really important and we have managed to speak to a lot of people," she added.

Another jobs fair is being held tomorrow (Friday) from 10am to 4pm at the Rose Theatre, in Taylors Lane, Rugeley.

Credit union may expand

A CREDIT union which serves Burntwood and Lichfield may extend into the Cannock district.

Cannock Chase Council is looking to bring Fusion Credit Union into its areas.

Previous plans to introduce Staffordshire Credit Union in Cannock were dropped because of concern at the administration costs.

The council's corporate director Tony McGovern told Heath Hayes, Norton Canes and Rawnsley Community Forum the council had set aside £5,000 in this financial year for the project – if there was sufficient support

Motorway chaos as car overturns

The scene of the crash on the M6 northbound at Penkridge on Saturday

A DRIVER escaped relatively unscathed when his car flipped and landed on its roof after a crash on the M6 near Penkridge.

The Ford Ka somersaulted on the northbound carriageway, smashing the windscreen and crushing part of the roof.

The accident happened at 10.52am on Saturday, holding up many football fans who were travelling north to watch games.

The stretch, between Junction 12 at Gailey and 13 at Acton Gate, was closed for almost two hours while emergency services worked at the scene.

The collision was cleared by around 12.45pm.

Police opened up one lane of the carriageway after a short while to allow some traffic to filter through.

Queues tailed back for more than seven miles back to Junction 10a, Hilton Park services.

Shopping

The driver, and one from another car involved in the crash, were taken to Stafford Hospital with neck injuries. Neither was believed to be seriously hurt.

Motorist Lindsey Doyle, aged 32, of Cannock, who was travelling to Stafford for shopping was delayed for more than 40 minutes.

She said: "I managed to get off the motorway to continue my journey."

Witnesses are asked to call the Central Motorway Police Group on 021 626 1285 and ask for Sgt YK Williams.

If you have rheumatoid arthritis (RA) with symptoms not adequately controlled by your current medications, you may be interested in a clinical study taking place in the local area.

The study is examining the effectiveness and safety of an investigational product in reducing pain and maintaining movement in joints in patients with moderate to severe RA.

We want to hear from you if you:

- have active RA
- are at least 18 years old
- have received at least 3 months of treatment with a biologic treatment, in combination with methotrexate
- are not obtaining adequate RA symptom relief.

Our study team will explain in detail what would be involved at every stage of the study. Participation is completely voluntary. With your consent, we would assess whether you meet all the study requirements before confirming whether you can take part. Study medication and procedures will be provided at no cost to you and study-related travel will be reimbursed.

Ideal colleagues set fundraising standard

TWELVE colleagues from a Rugeley business saddled up and raised more than £2,000 for three local charities.

The amateur bikers of Ideal Standard, formerly known as Armitage Shanks, completed the 151-mile trek from Whitehaven to Sunderland earlier this month.

Covering a predominantly off-road route, over three days, the mixed ability group aged between 22 and 56-years-old raised £2,100 which will be split between children's hospice; the Donna Louise Trust, the National Autism Society and Swan Pit Animal Rescue Centre.

Carl Davis, who has lost four stone since he started training in January, said: "It was great despite the fact the vast majority of us hadn't been on a bike in years. Although it was a tough ride for us all we stuck together and gelled brilliantly.

"We never expected to get through it but we are so proud of ourselves and are looking forward to focussing on another challenge next year."

Ideal Standard gave £300 towards the total. To donate, visit www.justgiving.com/alan-parrish0

Asbestos storage bid to create jobs

Unit 4, Redbrook Lane Industrial Estate, which could become an asbestos storage unit

A RUGELEY firm has announced plans to create an asbestos storage facility that could create 10 jobs.

Saints Central Insure Ltd, based at Tower Business Park, in Wheelhouse Road, wants to transform a vacant 3,659sqft unit on the Redbrook Lane Industrial Estate, in Brereton.

The firm wants to create a hazardous waste transfer facility capable of storing up to 10 tons of asbestos.

The building is detached from its neighbours, and the plans sent to Cannock Chase District Council indicate no changes to the exterior of the building which used to be used for manufacturing steel products.

Wrapped

In a supporting statement, sent to the council's planning department, the firm says: "The purpose of the development is to allow for the transfer and storage of asbestos.

"The main internal space of the larger building will be used to house two steel construction lidded containers for the short-term storage of wrapped and bagged asbestos wastes prior to their removal from site.

"The waste will be delivered from small vans and pick-ups via the small roller shutter door where it will be off loaded within the building."

Make a date with the original Calendar Girls

SIX of the original Calendar Girls who inspired the popular film and stage show are on their way to Cannock.

The friends, who met at the Women's Institute, took off their clothes in 1998 to raise money for Leukaemia and Lymphoma Research and stripped off again earlier this year for a new calendar for 2012 .

It was the tragic loss of Angela Baker's husband John from non-Hodgkin's lymphoma which inspired her and her friends to make the first nude calendar.

The women hoped it would raise enough money to buy a sofa for the local hospital where John was treated. They aimed to sell 3,000 calendars but sold nearly 90,000 copies. They have raised more than £3m for the charity over the years.

More than 12 years on, the Calendar Girls are as active as ever, speaking at events across the country and selling merchandise from their online shop.

Their range of products are sold to raise money for Leukaemia Research.

Angela, Christine Clancy, Ros Fawcett, Beryl Banforth, Lynda Logan and Tricia Stewart, will be at the Prince of Wales Centre in Church Street on October 17 and 18 as part of a national tour, an audience with the original Calendar Girls.

Angela said: "We've done the most amazing things but we've kept our feet on the ground. We didn't do the calendar because we wanted to be famous, we wanted to raise money in John's memory."

Tickets are £11 and profits go to Leukaemia Research. Call Bob Williams on 01543 670791.

Monologues show

HUGELY successful West End and Broadway show The Vagina Monologues arrives in Lichfield tonight (Thursday).

Coronation Street favourite Wendi Peters is joined by Louisa Lytton, of EastEnders and Strictly Come Dancing fame, as well as Waterloo Road star Zaraah Abrahams.

It's murder at the Garrick

Who star Katy Manning

FORMER EastEnders star Leslie Grantham leads a renowned cast when comedy Death by Fatal Murder comes to Lichfield.

The play, from Ian Dickens Productions and written by Peter Gordon, follows the critically-acclaimed tour of Murdered to Death.

The story follows Inspector Pratt, whose record of crime detection at Bagshot House is not enviable.

During the course of his latest investigations Pratt meets the new house owner Nancy Allwright and soon he is embroiled in more mystery, aided and abetted by Miss Maple and Constable Thomkins.

Upper-crust Ginny and Italian gigolo Enzo help with enquiries, but danger looms with an unexpected arrival and a frightening suggestion by Welsh busybody and clairvoyant, Blodwyn Morgan.

Grantham is joined by Allo Allo's Herr Flick – aka Richard Gibson – as well as Michelle Hardwick (The Royal) and Katy Manning (Dr Who).

Death by Fatal Murder takes place at the Lichfield Garrick from Tuesday 4 to Saturday 8 October, with evening performances at 7.30pm and a Saturday matinee at 2.30pm.

Tickets range from £17.50 to £22.50. Call 01543 412121 or visit www.lichfieldgarrick.com

Fred unlocks cache of cash to help charity

LOCKSMITH Fred Collins has raised hundreds of pounds for Midlands Air Ambulance charity by cutting keys in his spare time and cashing in scrap metal.

Fred, Walsall Housing Group's locksmith for 12 years, had accumulated 3,900kg of obsolete metal, including redundant and broken key and lock parts, so took it to a scrap merchant in exchange for £585. The cash, combined with contributions collected in exchange for him cutting keys for colleagues, customers and friends over the years totalled £1,000.

Fred, of Cheslyn Hay, said: "If anyone has asked me to do things in my spare time like cut a key for them or open a safe and supply a key, I've asked for a contribution to charity. I knew I'd be able to raise even more money by cashing in the boxes of old keys and locks. I hope it will make a real difference to the charity."

Midlands Air Ambulance charity spokesman Katy Meaney said: "Mr Collins has helped through his fundraising efforts and donation to ensure our vital service can continue to save lives."

A 2.3 kw system fitted by Bookmysurvey, this time in an all-silver finish

The mounting used on this 2.4k kw system is a SEN Sol 50 in black and silver

Sunny side of the street with solar energy firm

A 2.59 kw system installed as part of the Tesco Scheme. The work was carried out on behalf of Enact Energy

THE feed in tariff (FIT) was introduced to the UK in April 2007 also known as the Clean Energy Cashback Scheme.

The FITs scheme offers a set rate of payment for every kilowatt of energy you generate, regardless if you use it or not, meaning that if you can estimate how much power you can produce Then you can work out your likely income.

Thus you can calculate how long it will take to earn back the installation costs and begin making a profit, guaranteed for 25 years.

The energy regulator Ofgem sets out the rates for the FITs scheme, together with indicative installation costs and estimates of future income.

With the introduction of the FIT scheme people are now seeing this as not only their way of being green, but an excellent and secure investment giving a return of around 12 per cent return on investment. The marketplace has grown rapidly and with this rapid growth it has unfortunately brought with it companies and "one man bands" seeing this as a great time to get on the ladder of success.

Numerous companies are using hard sales tactics gleaned from the window and door business officering inflated prices and huge discounts for different gimmicks.

Code

Anybody selling or installing Solar PV has to be part of the Microgeneration Certification Scheme (MCS) and follow the code of practice under the Real Assurance Scheme. Bookmysurvey Ltd, based in Tilcon Avenue, Stafford, is a member of both these schemes.

Bookmysurvey managing director Giles Birch said: "Our installers, sales and office staff are all employed directly and are not sub contactors; they are all technically minded and on-going in house training programs ensure that we are kept up to date with the changing technologies and products, ensuring our customers are given both the correct information and reliable/efficient systems. From the initial enquiry the process is both quick and simple:

- Site assessment booked, during this we will carry out a suitability survey which will check the roof structure/condition, electrical wiring and the measurements of the suitable area. The assessor will also discuss how the equipment will work and be located and also give a brief insight into the products.
- We then design a system specific to your roof from the measurements gained, unlike some companies we will not quote without a site visit using internet "satellite view" map sites. Once designed the quote and CAD drawing is generated along with the Standard Assessment Procedure (SAP).
- If the quote is accepted, a structural survey of the roof will be carried out by an independent company to give the added assurance that the structure can take the extra load and the report sent to the customer before install.
- The installation date will be arranged for the install to take place which usually we ask to allow for two days.
- All completion certificates, guarantees and associated paperwork are then sent to customer to allow them to start claiming the FIT."

Mr Birch added: "We strongly recommend that when choosing your system you are thorough with your choice and contact two or three companies and get comparisons."

Staff dress at Land Army girls at Nethermoor House residential home, Rugeley

Back to the 40s for fundraiser at home

AN ELDERLY people's home in Rugeley stepped back in time to host a 1940s day and raised £100 for the residents.

Nethermoor House Residential Home, Chaseley Road, gave residents a blast from the past during the event.

The staff, who decorated the home and dressed up as Land Army girls, dedicated their time growing their own vegetables, making batches of home-made marmalade, cakes and fat-balls as well as planting their own bedding flowers.

The residents, aged between 65 and 98, also received a talk from Cannock Chase Museum about World War II before a special war-time sing-along with a singer called Alexandra.

Memories

Care manager Sally Starkey said: "We are trying to include a lot of activities into the daily routine of the home and this was a great day.

"The residents thoroughly enjoyed it and it was smiles all round as the event brought back happy memories for them.

"The day would not have been possible without the support from staff, families and friends.

"Special thanks go to all of the care staff and the manager as well as the local business who donated raffle prizes."

The team is now looking forward to hosting its next event.

This dedication to quality begins with excellent manufacturing of their window system, through to excellent customer service.

Family-run

The company is a family-run business with two brothers, David and Richard Carter, at the helm.

Director of sales, David, says: "We aim to give our customers the very best service the industry can offer.

"Through being involved directly with sales, we can develop a special relationship with customers the second their phone rings.

"Then, when our customers become confident they are buying their windows, doors or conservatories off the right company, we then get the project underway.

"Starting with a free technical survey of the work being carried out, we then project-manage everything from that point on.

"In our conservatories range we have many different options for our customers.

"We provide the finished article, starting with the base, brickwork, erecting the uPVC frames and roof, right down to fitting electrics, tiling the floor and fitting vertical blinds.

"In our showroom, we have six full-sized conservatories fully-fitted with fixtures and fittings to show our customers exactly what they're buying.

"Energyseal is also looking to create more jobs in the local area."

Richard, trade director, adds: "When we started manufacturing, we had three employees. Three years on we now employ 10 fabricators, two fitting teams and six office staff.

"We are always looking to expand our business so we can create new jobs for local people. Because we offer such an excellent service, most of our work comes from recommendations so this gives us the opportunity to grow. We also supply to the trade industry.

"If you are interested in buying any of our extensive range of windows, doors or conservatories, call us on 01902 866000 and one of our friendly advisers will be happy to help with your enquiry.

"Alternatively, pop into our showroom for a free no obligation quote."

Sales receptionist Zoe Carter is always happy to meet and greet existing and new customers in the modern showroom

Woman with stolen rings is sent to jail

A WOMAN who tried to sell stolen jewellery to a Cannock shop after telling staff the items belonged to her dead aunt has been jailed.

Louise Hopley took the bag of jewellery to Chatwin's Jewellers in Cannock town centre, but staff were suspicious as she appeared to be over dramatic.

Mr John Peel, prosecuting at Cannock Magistrates Court on Tuesday, said Hopley had taken the collection of silver rings into the shop in a clear plastic bag.

"She said they had been left to her by an aunt who had passed away three days ago," he said.

"The member of staff thought she was being a drama queen.

"Another member of staff became aware of it and remembered that morning someone had come into the shop and told them similar jewellery had been stolen."

Handling

Hopley, aged 33, of Patterdale Road, Chadsmoor, admitted handling £1,000 worth of stolen goods on July 20 this year, belonging to Louise Craddock.

She also admitted theft of a £2.99 bottle of cider and breaching a conditional discharge given last year for two other thefts.

The court heard Hopley had failed to turn up to probation meetings to prepare a pre-sentence report, but magistrates subsequently declined to give her any more chances.

Chairman of the bench Mr Barry Joynes sentenced Hopley to eight weeks custody for handling the goods, a 14-day concurrent sentence for the theft, and no further sentence for breach of the conditional discharge.

In mitigation, Mr Ian Hochett said Hopley had not stolen the jewellery, had admitted the offence at the first opportunity, and had not co-operated with the probation service because of difficult personal problems.

Textiles go on display at centre

A GROUP of textile artists are showing off their talent in Staffordshire – and urging more visitors to come before their exhibition closes at the weekend.

Five Fold textile art group has a variety of pieces on display at Chasewater Innovation Centre.

Work is on sale throughout the year but the display at Chasewater is for viewing only. Member Margaret Fairhead said: "Each of our members has a highly individual approach to work with a widely diverse style and technique.

"The techniques we use include mixed media, quilting, patchwork and machine embroidery as well as puppetry and dyeing."

Five Fold textile art group meet at the Curborough Centre in Lichfield monthly. The exhibition finishes on Sunday.

Charity HQ will open for public

A FIRST aid charity in Staffordshire is opening its doors to the public later this week.

The Rugeley and Tamworth branches of St John Ambulance are inviting local people to find out more about vital first aid techniques as part of organisation's Save a Life campaign.

The Rugeley event, at the charity's base in Sheep Fair, will take place on Friday, September 30, between 11am and 2pm. The following day the public is invited for a look inside the Tamworth office in Moor Street between the same times.

Visitors will be given the chance to talk to volunteers and staff about the work of the charity and find out more about the services, equipment and training opportunities on offer.

The events draw to a close the month-long Save a Life campaign across the county. The initiative was launched as part of a national drive to equip as many people as possible with vital first aid skills.

More than 100 events have taken place nationwide.

Youth group in schools visit

DANCE4LIFE youth group is bringing its workshops to three Cannock schools as part of a national tour.

Blake Valley Technology College, Great Wyrley Performing Arts High and Cheslyn Hay High will all receive a slice of the sexual health and development programme. The tour sees the fully-trained youth-led group reach out to more than 5,000 students around the country, with Cannock being one of its most concentrated areas.

MP Gavin Williamson will also attend the final session at Cheslyn Hay High, on Friday October 7, where 240 students will take part.

Workshops at Blake Valley Technology College and Great Wyrley Performing Arts High will take place throughout next Wednesday October 5, to around 150 students.

Dance4life is an international programme which seeks to empower and unite young people to improve personal and global sexual health. The team uses music, media and dance to engage young people through an array of interactive workshops.

Regular surgeries with your councillor

DISTRICT and town councillors representing Boney Hay, Central, Chase Terrace, Chasetown and Summerfield wards want to hear residents' views on the future of Burntwood.

They will be holding their regular advice surgeries from 10am to 11am on Saturday (October 1).

While councillors will be there to deal with individual problems residents may have, they also want to hear what residents want for the town.

Leader of Burntwood Town Council, Don Isaacs said: "The town council is now working on the town strategy and various members are leading on particular areas. But we can't do it alone – we need to know what residents would like to see in Burntwood over the next few years and particularly if they would like to get more involved in this process. Any Burntwood resident can just turn up on Saturday morning. If they can't do that then if they let the town council know on 677166 we will get back to them."

Chance to give blood

DONORS can give blood in Cannock and Rugeley next week.

The National blood Service will be at Cannock's Civic Centre, in Beecroft Road, on Monday (October 3) and in the Garner Suite at Lea Hall Social Club, in Sandy Lane, Rugeley on Wednesday (5). Sessions at both times take place from 1.30 to 3.30pm and 4.30 to 7.30pm. Call 0300 123 23 23 to make an appointment.

Country ramble

Can't beat The Drums

NEW ALBUMS

The Drums – The Smiths blended with The Beach Boys, only much better than that sounds

The Drums – Portamento

Just over a year since their debut album, New York's The Drums have hit the jackpot with a second album that lives up to all their promise and more.They have fine-tuned those Smiths and surf influences into their own distinctive sound, although the genes come from Morrissey-Marr and The Beach Boys.

The songs have an autobiographical theme for singer and chief songwriter Jonny Pierce and the pains of adolescence usually make for a good pop record. The guitars jangle and chime and Jakob Graham conjures sounds from his synths not heard since the early 80s.

Right from the off Pierce is railing against a religious upbringing in Book Of Revelation. Please Don't Leave has all the hallmarks of classic 'indie' pop and If He Likes It Let Him Do It pumps its line over a melody and vocal reminiscent of A-ha.

See them at Birmingham Institute Library on Monday, November 28.

Bombay Bicycle Club – A Different Kind Of Fix

London's Bombay Bicycle Club have plugged in their electric guitars after their acoustic tour and drawn upon psychedelic pop and shoegazer rock for their third album.

The folk influence remains, for they get Fleet Foxes-like on Fracture and Beggars (at least until the drums and guitars cut in). However, Your Eyes ends up as soaring psychedelic pop and Lights Out Words Gone is a whispered soulful shuffle. Still ends the album with an anthemic ballad. Listen to A Different Kind Of Fix back-to-back with The Drums' new album and rejoice at the return of classic alternative pop.

BBC have a gig at Birmingham O2 Academy on Thursday, October 13.

Will Young – Echoes

If you've heard hit single Jealousy – and if you haven t you can't have been listening to music radio in recent months – then you have been well prepared for Echoes, for this pristine pop album iscut from the same cloth.

Ten years on from his Pop Idol triumph, it is hard to believe that Young ever needed to take the talent show route to success. Here he sounds better than ever as if his recent break to pursue acting roles has allowed him to come back refreshed. His fifth album shows him in fine vocal form, sometimes adopting a soulful falsetto, for songs united by a theme of bruised and broken hearts. It is crisply produced by Richard X. If Jealousy is the obvious hit, count on Silent Valentine as a certain future chart-topper (particularly if released shortly before February 14). To that you can add the slinky Safe From Harm and the George Michael-like dancefloor smoocher I Just Want A Lover. He certainly has at least three instalments here for his second volume after his platinum selling Hits collection.

Will Young is in concert at Birmingham O2 Academy on Sunday, November 20.

Ed Sheeran – +

The tousled-haired young singer/songwriter from Suffolk has been the surprise success story of the summer with his chart-topping debut single, The A Team, a poignant song about a heroin-addicted prostitute.

He is very much a 21st century songsmith, augmenting his simple voice and acoustic guitar approach with a few understated hip-hop influences, without being as experimental as the dubstep-influenced singer-songwriter James Blake.

What is appealing about Sheeran, what has taken this debut album to the top and makes his concerts the hottest ticket in town – including those for his gig at Wolverhampton Civic Hall on Tuesday, January 17 – is that he writes about real people in real situations. The public can identify with his songs, whether they be about embarking on fatherhood or the simple delight in feeling a loved one's eyelash flutter on your cheek as you lie together.

If you like music rooted in real life, if you like artists such as Damien Rice, David Gray and Tracy Chapman, you will probably enjoy +.

The Rifles – Freedom Run

Listen up fans of Editors, The Beta Band, Stereophonics, The Bees and The Coral, or rather listen to, The Rifles.

The London band specialise in infectious, melodic guitar-riffing pop/rock and with veteran ace producer Chris Potter (The Rolling Stones, The Clash, U2 and The Verve's Urban Hymns) at the controls, Freedom Run is something special.

Potter has given The Rifles the means to create their own wall of sound with additional piano and strings adding to the guitars and harmonies.

Aptly for a band that loves The Jam, he has brought a Motown influence that is most apparent on Tangled Up In Love. And if you want mod, you will not hear many new songs more modish than Love Is A Key.

You can join The Rifles at Birmingham O2 Academy on Monday, November 7.

The Answer – Revival

The opening slide guitar licks blend into opening track Waste Your Tears and the Northern Irish melodic metal band deliver a classic swaggering rocker that could have been recorded any time in the past 35 years.

Cormac Neeson is a rock vocalist from the classic Plant/Coverdale/Bon Scott mould, and any doubts about placing him in such star-studded company should be allayed by the time you've reached their third album's third track, the harmonica-blasting rasper Trouble.

He duets (duels?) with St Jude's Lynne Jackaman on the battle of the lungs that is supercharged power ballad Nowhere Freeway.

It will be a case of Birmingham are you ready to rock when The Answer visit the 02 Academy on October 19.

Get into Gears

Delta Squad are back in action in Gears of War 3

Gears of War 3 (Epic/Microsoft, 18)

The Gears franchise stays successful by sticking to what it does best, allowing beefcake space marines to kick alien butt with an array of ridiculously oversized weapons. You get plenty of bang for your buck with Gears.

This third instalment sees Fenix and the rest of the COG soldiers cooling their heels on a rusty old ocean barge, having apparently lost the war against the alien Locusts and Lambent. But the sudden return of the dodgy Chairman Prescott, with the alien hordes in hot pursuit, sends Delta Squad on a mission to rescue Fenix's scientist father, thought dead but who may have found a way to defeat the aliens.

The old stalwarts are back, including Baird and Dom, the latter most disgruntled that he is torn away from tending to his radishes, which seems to be the squad's main food source.

Gears of War 3 looks great, the dialogue is cliched and peppered with expletives but crucially it delivers non-stop action. Both hardcore fans and casual gamers are catered for, with lots of different modes for multiplayer match-ups. Epic have dedicated servers for the expected surge of Gears online action. Rookies can choose the casual setting to breeze through the day-long campaign.

Gears 3 is a blast, in fact, it's lots of blasts. Available for Xbox 360 only.

Dead Island (Deep Silver, 18)

A luxury hotel vacation on a tropical island becomes the holiday from hell in this satisfying action-horror game.

After a slow start when you would do well to pick up as many useful objects as possible, the zombie onslaught comes thick and fast... very fast.

Dead Island will become a must for zombie slaying survivalists because of the ability to improvise and modify weaponry to use against the ravenous ghouls. Dead good. It is available for Xbox 360, Playstation 3 and PC.

Driver San Francisco (Ubisoft, 12)

Bullitt meets Life On Mars in this twist on driving games.

You play an undercover cop determined to capture an escaping master criminal on the streets of San Francisco. But when the crook engineers a crash that leaves you in a coma, the chase continues in your head in an imaginary Frisco where street signs give you helpful hints about your true condition, like WAKE UP! But it does let you shift into the bodies of other drivers to gain access to their wheels.

The mystical stuff isn't necessary because most driving fans will be satisfied to be at the wheel of a powerful sports car (more than 100 are available) and have an open-world San Francisco at their disposal. Those hills were surely made to test suspension. DSF is available for Xbox 360, PS3, Wii and PC.

All these titles were reviewed on Xbox 360

Stray Staffordshire bull terriers Dexter and Lola, who are looking to be rehoused by a Rugeley pair

Staffies look for loving new home

TWO STRAY Staffordshire bull terriers are looking for a new home with the help of a dog loving Rugeley duo.

Dexter and Lola, who are believed to be aged between three and four, have been living at a temporary foster home.

But Ruth Dewis and Pauline Roberts who work tirelessly to re-house dogs across the area. are eager to find them both a new family following an unsettling stay at the kennels.

Ruth Dewis said: "They really deserve a happy ending after living through this period of unrest.

Attention

"They both have a lot to give and especially love young children.

"This is an urgent matter as they are not reacting well to being in kennels and are starting to lose weight."

The dogs would suit a young family who have the time to give them lots of attention.

To find out more contact Ruth on 07900 090093 or Pauline on 07971 817877.

Sewerage problems at an end on estate

RESIDENTS in Rugeley are celebrating the end of a 20-year headache which saw them responsible for their own sewerage system.

Severn Trent Water will now adopt the drains on the Pear Tree Estate following a campaign by the residents.

The problem affected around 650 homes which were built by the National Coal Board in the 1950s. The sewers were not adopted by a water company when the NCB folded and were classed as private – meaning all problems and repair costs fell on the householders.

In the past raw sewage has leaked into gardens and local streets and residents have had to pay the cost of clearing it up.

Blockages have cost them thousands of pounds over the years. Now their battle is over after Severn Trent Water agreed to adopt the sewers and lateral drains on the estate.

The move follows a campaign by residents in similar positions across the country.

The pipe system in Rugeley will be transferred next month – part of a programme which involves 200,000 kilometres of privately-owned sewers throughout the UK.

Burden

New sewers will automatically become the responsibility of water and sewer companies.

Rugeley councillor Tony Williams said residents on the Pear Tree Estate were under a particular burden because the ageing drains did not meet modern standards.

Householders had experienced raw sewage in their roads, gardens and coming up through sinks and baths.

Water firm to adopt the drains

Last year 70 householders were sent a bill for £7,000 to clear a blocked drain with many of the residents expected to foot the cost either elderly, widowed or low income earners.

Welcoming the move, Councillor Williams said: "It's been a huge expense and a burden for residents. There were on average a dozen problems a year.

"Now it means Severn Trent is under an obligation to upgrade the drains."

The private sewers will be transferred on Saturday, October 1. Residents will not need to take any action to make the transfer happen.

Until now, water companies have been able to refuse to adopt a sewer if it has not been built to an appropriate standard. Most newcomers to the Pear Tree Estate were unaware they faced maintenance costs.

Festival includes US ales

FIVE US cask-conditioned beers rarely available in the UK will feature at a Cannock pub as part of a 19-day ale festival.

The festival runs at Wetherspoon's The Linford Arms in High Green from October 5 to 23.

The American cask-conditioned beers are being brewed in the UK to their individual recipes.

They are Kalamazoo Black Silk from Michigan, Sandiago Session IPA from California, Oregon's Cascadian Dark Ale, Ohio's Yakima Sun and Ninety Shilling from Colorado.

The pub will also be serving up to 45 beers from across the UK.

All the ales will be priced at £2.10 a pint.

Customers will be able to sample any three of the beers in special third-of-a-pint glasses for the price of a pint.

Pub manager Andy Newman said: "The festival promises to be great fun."

Rockstar equitation centre owner Kay Scott-Jarvis with Ruddy

Stables owner taking reins for horse training with a difference

A STABLE with a difference opens near Penkridge this weekend.

The Rockstar Equitation Centre provides horse training based on the latest scientific research. It bans whips, working instead on understanding the psychology of each individual horse.

The centre at Mansty Farm has been developed by 31-year-old Kay Scott-Jarvis, a qualified equine coach and former lecturer at the Rodbaston campus of South Staffordshire College.

It will provide a range of services including facility hire, livery services, regular clinics, training days and lessons.

Rockstar Equitation Centre in Mansty Lane launches on Saturday, October 1 when it is holding an open day from 10am.

Legend's boxing gloves are going under hammer

A selection of the medals

Boxer Joe Attwood in action

The boxing gloves worn by Attwood

A LEGENDARY Black Country boxer's gloves were going under the auctioneer's hammer this week.

A large collection of personal memorabilia that belonged to Halesowen-born Joe Attwood was taken along to a valuation day in Walsall by Lichfield-based Richard Winterton Auctioneers.

The welterweight, who was born in 1890 in Hayley Green, fled to Wales to work in the mines and then to Canada after being accused of throwing a fight in his home town and being chased down the street.

Joe, who died in1975, was reputed to have been able to hold his own in any fight.

He spent his early days in fairground boxing booths before becoming a professional. In Canada he joined the Canadian Army during the First World War. He carried on boxing in the army as Sgt Attwood and after the war returned to England and resumed his career.

In 131 bouts he had 102 wins 10 draws and lost 16. Despite his success and world travels, including fights in New York and Canada.

Joe's roots remained in his home town and he always longed to see his 'old cronies'. According to Halesowen legend one fight was arranged at the Borough Hall with Cradley Heath's Joe Robinson and many locals placed bets on Joe to win the fight.

To the surprise, disappointment and anger of all he lost the contest in eight rounds and many of the local lads believed that he had been bribed so to do by the bookmakers and chased him down the road.

Licence

The medals to be featured in the sale from today (Thursday) and tomorrow (Friday) include his first welterweight medal from Paris 1919, a 1918 gold winners medal, his First World War and Victory medals and a First World War City of Welland gold medal. The haul also includes his 1922 licence card to fight in New York, photographs and programmes.

The collection is lot 450 in the antique, 20th Century and collectors' sale at Lichfield Auction Centre, which is also being filmed for ITV's Dickinson's Real Deal.

The sale's illustrated catalogue can be viewed online at the website www.the-saleroom.com/richardwinterton

School ruled top class by inspectors

PUPILS and staff at a Penkridge primary are celebrating being judged top class by Ofsted inspectors.

St Michael's C.E. First School was given a 'good' rating and was praised for making considerable progress since its last inspection with some aspects of its work now outstanding.

Just over three years ago the school was barely satisfactory but staff and governors have worked hard to turn the assessment around.

Inspector Mary Davis said in her report that the significant improvement was the result of the "unstinting and highly effective" work of the headteacher, supported by a strong leadership team.

She added: "Together they have inspired the school community to develop provision and to raise pupils' outcomes. Pupils enjoy school and their outstanding behaviour and considerable enthusiasm for lessons results in them making good progress," she said.

Guidance

Last year the school opened its doors to a new link building that provided disabled access and a more secure environment.

Ofsted recognised the move by awarding the school 'outstanding' for safeguarding its pupils and for care guidance and support.

A new Early Years area, also opened last year, was described by Ofsted as "an inspiring setting." Head Jayne Grundy said: "It is wonderful the teamwork between staff, governors and parents has resulted in the school being good with outstanding areas. Everyone played a key part in the improvement.

"It is not just a building that makes a school good with outstanding features, it is just one piece of the jigsaw. The new curriculum has really inspired the children.

A new behaviour policy and uniform in the past three years has resulted in Ofsted reporting behaviour as outstanding. The efforts of St Michael's in involving parents in their childrens education was also judged to be outstanding.

THAT SUNDAY NIGHT SHOW

ITV1, 10.15pm

Sometimes it's easy to forget that despite fronting much-maligned breakfast show Daybreak and ITV's UEFA Champions League coverage, Adrian Chiles is actually a proper, bonafide journalist. Therefore, his ability to host a series like this is undoubted, but whether or not his talent is suited to the format is questionable. As usual, the content is very much up-to-the-minute, so there's no way to tell where the news will take it, but usual topics up for discussion between Adrian and his guests are the latest political headlines, and celebrity antics.

This is one for the budding gourmets. Make your own flavoured oils with Gilbert's stylish Perfect Infuser (£22.50).

Pour your favourite oil into the infuser and add your dry herbs and spices to the separate chamber to produce flavour and colour.

Keep experimenting until you find your perfect flavour for pouring and dipping. It's dishwasher safe too.

Gilbert's also has a Perfect Mix (£24.99) for blending oil and vinegar.

Haley's Corker is a super little five-in-one device to enhance enjoyment of wine.

It acts as a filter to keep out cork and sediment, a drip-free pourer, an aerator to boost bouquet and flavour, a re-corker so you don't have to struggle to push the cork back in and a stopper that allows you to store the previously opened wine on its side in the fridge.

The black corker fits all corked bottles – so could be used for oil and vinegar – and the green one is for screw caps. They cost £5.75 each or £11.50 for a green and black twin pack.

Available from the www.topgourmet.co.uk website.

Use DIY skills to protect your home

YOU can protect your home yourself, providing you have basic DIY skills.

Homebase has come up with a guide that shows you how to help keep your home safe and secure by fitting an alarm, security lighting, CCTV and strong locks for your external doors.

None of the tasks are particularly difficult but some electrical and carpentry skills are required at times. Remember, always use the manufacturer's instructions when fitting any new security equipment.

1. Alarms

Before buying an alarm you need to work out what features are necessary for your home. Systems are either wired or wireless. Wired ones can be a bit tricky to install as you will need to run wires from each detector all the way back to the central control unit.

Both types usually use a number of detectors that either sense movement or are triggered by breaking a magnetic contact i.e. when someone opens a door/window.

Break-contact detectors protect the vulnerable entry points such as the back and front doors and ground floor windows. Work out how many you will need.

PIR sensors are triggered by body heat and movement. They are good for covering large areas inside your home but not usually suitable for entry points as they may be set off by people or animals passing by.

Place sensors so the beam does not point at a window or heat sources these will set them off. Check the sensors cover a sufficient area for the room you want to protect.

Most control boxes need a mains power supply, with a back-up battery in case of power failure. Make sure the box is tamper proof so the alarm goes off if an intruder tries to interfere with it. Make sure the keypad is out of reach of small children.

The alarm box should be fitted to the front of the home or somewhere that is obvious to passers-by. It should be placed high up so that it can't be tampered with. If your home can also be reached from the rear, make sure you order a second alarm box.

2. CCTV (closed circuit TV)

For extra reassurance CCTV systems are easy to fit and do not need any special electrical connections. The simpler systems include one or two cameras and a controller that plugs directly into your TV via the scart socket.

Make sure you point lights so that passers-by do not trigger them off

More sophisticated ones let you record pictures from the cameras while you are out. If you are using CCTV cameras in dark areas, or want clearer images after dark, outside security lighting is advised.

3. Installing CCTV cameras

Make sure you place cameras out of reach to stop intruders tampering with them and they have a clear view of access areas – away from overhanging trees or bushes.

Drill a small hole through your wall or window frame so that you can feed the camera cable inside your home. From inside, the extension cable needs to be connected to the camera cable. Run the cables back of your TV.

Plug the power adaptor for the camera control box into a 13amp socket. The scart plug then goes into the socket on the back of your television. When you are all connected up switch your TV to the AV channel to see the images from your camera. Check the camera view before finalising installation.

4. Security lighting

Generally, exterior security lighting can be divided into two types: dusk-to-dawn lighting and PIR lighting. Dusk-to-dawn units come on automatically as it gets dark and switch off again when it gets lighter at dawn.

PIR units are triggered by body heat, so only come on if someone approaches your home. These are usually the best option as they use less electricity and should surprise and scare off any potential intruder.

5. Fitting security lights

Put your lights at least 2.5m off the ground. For PIR lighting make sure you point them so that passers-by don't trigger them off. Don't put the light near your boiler's flue as this can also set them off.

Drill a hole through the wall to the inside - make sure you line any holes with a plastic conduit. If you want to avoid drilling you may be able to feed the cable through your window frame or fascia board.

Make sure you turn off your power supply when fitting lights, then connect them according to the maker's instructions. Once you've connected the light it can then be fixed to the wall.

If you've chosen PIR lighting you can set the sensitivity control and adjust the length of time the light stays on once triggered. A few minutes is usually enough to disturb any intruder without annoying your neighbours if it goes off accidentally.

6. Best locks for secure external doors

The best and strongest locks have a 'kite mark' and are passed to British Standard BS3621. Most household insurance companies insist on these and they are recommended by crime prevention officers.

As a rule, the more levers, pins or discs a lock has, the more difficult it is to pick.

When possible fit two locks on your front door - both to BS3621 standard. A mortice deadlock and a night latch. To protect your back door, go for a mortice sash lock to BS3621, together with top and bottom mortice bolts.

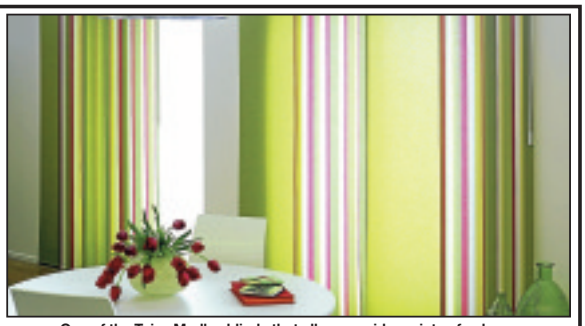
Sliding blinds to put you in the shade



One of the Tuiss Medley blinds that allows a wide variety of colours

SLIDING panel blinds are a relatively new and innovative shading solution to the UK market.

Perfect for larger windows and patio doors or to divide a room, these modern blinds are more sophisticated looking than vertical blinds and give a wonderful streamlined, designer-look to any room.

What makes panel blinds unique is the wide panels that reflect and filter daylight so effectively. When open, the panels stack neatly behind one another allowing maximum light into the room. Sliding the panels into the closed position creates a complete fabric screen providing light control and increased privacy.

Tuiss.co.uk has launched its Panel collection in widths and lengths to fit most windows and sliding doors. The panels are composed of fabric that range from sheer fabrics that let in light to coloured and patterned fabrics that provide more privacy, all in a wide variety of colours and textures.

There is also a Medley option which allows you to mix up different coloured and patterned panels to give your room.

Prices start from £36.19 for a made to measure blind. For free fabric samples or to order visit www.tuiss.co.uk or call 0800 862 0466.

Help is at hand for those looking to get on ladder

The 'Severn' home at Broadhurst Gardens, Huntington

FAST-MOVING first-time buyers can get help to step on the property ladder with the Government's new FirstBuy scheme at Taylor Wimpey's Broadhurst Gardens developments in Huntington, Cannock.

This fantastic initiative lets qualifying purchasers secure their new home for as little as 80 per cent of the full purchase price – including a 75 per cent mortgage and a five per cent deposit, subject to status – eliminating the need to save for years to purchase a first property.

However, anyone hoping to take advantage of this amazing opportunity will have to hurry because just one property remains under the FirstBuy scheme at Broadhurst Gardens.

The three-bedroom 'Severn' detached house, priced at only £179,995, can be accessed by qualifying purchasers for 80 per cent of its full purchase price – that's £143,996 – with the FirstBuy initiative.

Carl Cooke, Regional Sales and Marketing Director for Taylor Wimpey, says: "We're delighted that the Government's FirstBuy scheme is available at our sought-after Broadhurst Gardens development, offering one lucky first-time buyer a unique opportunity to leave renting behind and step on to the property ladder in style.

Don't let advice be just a load of hot air

Energy Performance Certificates that should help people cut their bills are having no influence on four out of five homebuyers who see them, according to new research.

Watchdog Consumer Focus carried out a survey to find out how useful prospective buyers and tenants found the certificates, which landlords and homeowners are legally required to provide when selling or letting a home.

It found that four out of five people who had received an Energy Performance Certificate (EPC) when buying or renting had not acted on any of its recommendations to make their new home more energy efficient and save money.

The survey also found that only one in five people who received the information said it had any influence on their decision to buy or rent the property. However, when asked what features in a new home were most important to them, apart from price and size, one in seven people said energy efficiency mattered most.

Recent Government figures show that carbon emissions coming from Britain's homes are still at almost the same level as 20 years ago, having fallen just three per cent between 1990 and 2009.

Attached

EPCs are vital to the success of the Government's Green Deal, which aims to cut emissions from homes.

It must help consumers understand how to access the Green Deal and whether a property has a Green Deal loan attached to it.

The EPC must be accurate, clear, and be provided before people buy or rent a property.

Consumer Focus energy expert Liz Lainé said: "Our survey shows that energy efficiency can influence people when choosing a new home. But the information in the EPC is not helping people act on those concerns.

"With the Green Deal just around the corner, these certificates must become a trigger for action, not just a sheet at the bottom of a huge pile of home-buying paperwork.

"Too many landlords and estate agents are getting away with selling and renting properties to people who have no idea how much heat their new home will leak. If prospective buyers and tenants could easily compare how much their energy bills are likely to be in different properties, they could negotiate a price based on their new home's energy efficiency.'

Consumer Focus is calling for the EPC to be changed to make it clearer how much money people can save by carrying out the suggested energy efficiency measures.

Small price to pay for the wind in your hair

By Ian Donaldson

CHOP THE roof off a car and it will probably wobble on rough roads: add a fabric top and it will let in more noise than keeping the tin-top in place, writes Ian Donaldson.

That's simple physics; the trick is to minimise both intruders while giving the punter something stylish for his (and, vitally, her) money. And that's another drop-top factor to consider. They all cost more than the hatches they're based on, so will only win over buyers who fall in love with the prospect of a bit of a pose in a less practical car.

Now, after a nine-year break, comes the Golf Cabriolet and, on a first drive on some fine Leicestershire roads in glorious early autumn sunshine it wasn't hard to make a case for spending the extra.

The Golf Cabriolet – a stylish car with a practical grounding is a sensible choice

My test car, picked at random from a tempting line taking in the entire launch range, was the most expensive Golf Cabriolet you can buy, at the moment.

It costs a not inconsiderable £26,595, £3,495 more than the equivalent Golf hatch and tops a range starting at £20,720. Three engines are immediately available (two petrol, one diesel) with three more later in the year.

The theme of threes continues in the number of trim levels (S, SE and GT).

Volume

All of them feature 16-inch alloy wheels, DAB radio and Bluetooth, and a powered roof that whirrs up and down in about the time it takes Usain Bolt to run 100 metres and will perform either action at up to about 18mph – looking ultra cool in the process.

Finding somewhere to stow the top when you want wind in your hair means there's less room in the rear seats than a Golf hatch and the boot is down in volume too.

However, unlike convertibles with bulky metal folding roofs (like the bigger, dearer VW Eos), there's the same space available whatever the position of the top, although reaching into the furthest recesses is a bit like trying to retrieve a parcel posted through a letter box.

But enough of these practicalities, you buy a cabrio as much with your heart as your head, even if the VW badges allows you to pretend you've been a bit sensible too.

Try the cabrio first with roof in place and on a patched British main road and you'll feel the car shimmying slightly as it mourns the loss of stiffness in the cut-about body, while you notice a bit more wind noise than the hatch will provoke.

Let the roof down, however, and let the sun shine in and you'll forgive the car its minor downsides and enjoy the smell of the fields, the twitter of birds in the roadside bushes and the feeling of one-ness with nature that only a convertible can give.

And it doesn't matter if you stray on to the A14, where the standard fit air deflector behind the front seats means there's only a gentle breeze in the cockpit with the speedo showing a typical A14 cruising speed (go on, you guess).

With 160 horsepower from its turbo charged petrol engine and VW's delightful DSG automatic gearbox giving your left leg a rest, this top of the pile cabrio is both swift when provoked and a doddle to drive in congested town traffic.

Never mind that the dash is standard Golf hatch fare.

That means it's sensible, easily mastered and just a touch lacking in flair but promises an uncomplicated relationship with a car that so easily puts a smile on your face.

Formula One king Vettel designs his own vehicle

THE perfect high-performance Infiniti Crossover – designed by, and built for, Formula One World Champion Sebastian Vettel – was making its debut in concept form at the 64th International Motor Show in Frankfurt.

The Red Bull Racing driver and Infiniti Global Brand Ambassador was unveiling "his" car at the show.

The first-ever Vettel-badged road car, the FX Sebastian Vettel version is the lightest, fastest and most aerodynamic FX yet.

It reflects the world champion's desire for a speedy 300km/h Crossover that he can drive on his home country's derestricted Autobahn.

Sporting

Based on the already fast and sporting V8-powered FX50S Premium, the FX Sebastian Vettel version features changes to engine, suspension and body.

There are also key aerodynamic enhancements implemented with input from Red Bull Racing.

The one-off model also gains an interior personalised to Vettel's taste, taking the brand hallmarks of exclusiveness and individuality to new levels.

Low emissions and excellent fuel economy are a bonus for thrifty motorists

Hyundai wipes drivers' blues with new fuel-sipping model

FOLLOWING on from the successful i10 Blue launched at the beginning of the year, Hyundai has added another sub-100g/km CO2 model to its range – the i20 Blue.

With emissions of 98g/km, it is the lowest emitting vehicle in Hyundai UK's line-up.

The i20 Blue is based on the current i20 Comfort trim level, mated to the 1.4 CRDi 90 PS engine, and is priced at £13,195 on-the-road.

To achieve the CO2 figures, the i20 Blue has the following Blue Drive technologies: Intelligent Stop & Go (ISG), low rolling resistance tyres, rear suspension under cover and rear-wheel deflector. With these, the i20 Blue achieves a 12 per cent reduction in emissions (compared to the current 1.4 CRDi 90PS Style i20 model) from 111g/km to 98g/km.

Drivers of the i20 Blue won't need to make regular visits to a fuel station. The 1.4 CRDi Euro V compliant four-cylinder engine achieves 76.4mpg combined – the kind of cheap-to-run credentials that are important as the cost of motoring continues to rise. This is a 14 per cent improvement on a combined cycle compared to the i20 1.4 CRDi 90PS Style model.

To put these figures into perspective, it would cost approximately £63 to fill up the i20 Blue with diesel for a range of 755 miles. As well as excellent fuel economy, the i20 Blue also gains exemption from VED and the London Congestion Charge as it emits less than 100g/km.

Mirrors

The i20 Blue's standard equipment includes 15-inch alloy wheels, Bluetooth connectivity with voice recognition, electric heated and folding door mirrors, electric front and rear windows, steering wheel audio controls, USB and aux connections, air conditioning and remote central locking.

Sitting alongside the i10 Blue, the new i20 Blue model demonstrates Hyundai's continuous commitment to increasing the efficiency of both its petrol and diesel engines.

On-sale now, and like all Hyundai passenger cars, the Hyundai i20 Blue comes with a Five Year Triple Care package, which includes a five-year, unlimited mileage, manufacturer backed warranty, five years of roadside assistance and five years of annual vehicle health checks.

Vauxhall says its new Zafira people-mover will undercut its key rivals being £1,200 cheaper than Ford's S-Max

Vauxhall's Zafira starts a price war

VAUXHALL has started a people-moving price war with its main rival Ford.

The entry-level version of the new Vauxhall Zafira Tourer will undercut the price of its main rival, the Ford S-Max, by £1,200.

Despite the cost-cutting, the 138bhp Zafira Tourer ES 1.8 will come equipped with an excellent range of kit as standard, including air conditioning, DAB radio, cruise control, MP3 connections, six airbags, a seven-speaker sound system, active headrests and the handy Flex7 seating found in the smaller Zafira. Longer, wider and more expensive than the Zafira, the Zafira Tourer is designed to be Vauxhall's premier people-mover, with higher levels of luxury, space and equipment.

It uses key components from the Insignia, which seem to include the basic chassis layout.

Safety

The Insignia's platform is a large one, so it's no surprise that the Zafira Tourer is described by Vauxhall as "overwhelmingly airy" inside.

On the outside, it's 19cm longer than a standard Zafira.

In this vehicle, more emphasis is being placed on safety in the Tourer, with a plethora of driver-assist systems making a first appearance in the new model.

Traffic sign recognition, side blind spot alert and advance park assist – which helps drivers find an adequate parking space and guides them in to it – are among the potential highlights, but they are likely to be extra options.

There will be 1.8-litre and turbocharged 1.4-litre petrol engines, alongside a 2.0-litre diesel engine with three different power outputs.

One of the diesels is an EcoFlex version that emits 119g/km of CO2, reducing running costs.

The car world's Frankfurt catwalk

By Ian Donaldson

West Midlands know-how produced the Jaguar C-X16 prototype at Coventry

The striking Kia GT is unlikely to translate into production

IT'S not big, it's vast – the Frankfurt motor is a once every two years chance for Germany's car makers to show off.

And boy, do they flex their corporate muscle. Take Volkswagen; for days before the show opened around 1,000 people had been building the company's stand. Shaped like a cloud and big enough to display 50 vehicles, it is lit by 2,100 lamps and needs 50 miles of cable to connect them.

Not enough for Audi, though, which built a temporary show hall, big enough for its latest cars to roar round on a banked indoor track and rumoured to cost 10 million euros.

So it's good to see, if you're rooting for the UK (which hasn't had a proper motor show for years) that not all the show stoppers were designed on computers in a German car plant. One came from Coventry, in the shape of the Jaguar C-X16 prototype.

Another came from the other branch of what we'll get used to calling JLR – for Jaguar Land Rover. For one of Frankfurt's genuine surprises was a glimpse into the future (well, 2015) when Land Rover is due to introduce a new version of the seemingly immortal Defender.

But the Jag first. Pretty enough to take your breath, this is the car that's going to morph into the E-Type for the 21st century.

The shortest Jaguar since the 1954 XK 120, it's powered by a supercharged V6 petrol engine and boosted by an on-demand electric motor for a top speed of 186mph.

It's expected to cost from around £50,000 when sales start in 18 months time, by which time an obvious competitor will have already become a modestly common sight.

That car – the new Porsche 911 – is another Frankfurt star. Only the third all-new 911 (it made its debut at Frankfurt in 1963) the new model continues the looks of old (mad not to) but is bigger and, with a new 3.4 litre, 350 horsepower engine for the entry level, faster and more economical.

Bodywork

Put German (Porsche) engineering and British design together and you have the new Hemera, from a London-based company – Eterniti Motors.

Called the world's first "super SUV", the car is based on a Porsche Cayenne with blinged-up bodywork. It won't be cheap (from around £150,000); features include twin electric rear seats, iPads and a drinks chiller. Production is promised for 2012.

One show car not scheduled for production is the Kia GT, although its vaguely Aston Martin-like lines and sheer in-your-face style signify a company oozing confidence. More sensible, but with style to spare, is the Kia Optima. It's the size of a BMW 5 Series and could shake up the executive car market when it arrives on our shores next year.

And back to Land Rover, which showed a closed and open version of its new Defender thinking.

The first we'd seen already, the topless version of the DC100 was as unexpected as it was startlingly effective, with cut-down windscreen and a sonar system like a submarine's to tell you how deep is the river you're about to ford. It will doubtless be toned down before we can buy one, but let's hope not by too much.

Frankfurt is Europe's biggest car show and probably the most important and yes, there were plenty of daft looking designs you know will never see the light of a production line. More interesting were the rash of new cars you WILL be able to see at the local showroom soon.

Mercedes B-Class: Due here in March, it's lower than today's car yet roomier inside, one of the most aerodynamic shapes in the world and comes with a new range of engines promising much better economy.

The seats are nearer the ground than the old car (easier to get in and out of, says Mercedes), while every car will have a radar based anti-collision system that warns of a potential shunt ahead.

Honda Civic: A smoothed-off version of the mould-breaking current and Swindon-built car, the new Civic is going to major on an improved ride and better handling. It will go on sale at the start of next year with 1.4 and 1.8-litre petrol engines and a 2.2-litre diesel. Prices will start around £16,000. The 2.2-litre diesel will bring emissions down to 110g/km, and a 1.6-litre diesel will be added later.

Generation

Volkswagen Up: Well, it's the up! And it's a big car hiding in a small car's bodyshell.

The up! is a front-wheel-drive city car powered by a new generation of 1.0-litre three-cylinder petrol engines with emissions below 100g/km and fuel consumption of more than 60mpg with stop-start.

It will go on sale in the UK next March from around £8,000. Its new underbody structures and engines have been developed so they can be expanded for the next-generation VW Polo, and there will be Seat and Skoda versions.

Skoda: The gap between the little Fabia and much bigger Octavia will be plugged when the Mission L arrives here next year, after going on sale in India first, later in 2011.

It will look a lot like the Frankfurt "concept car" which enhances Skoda's reputation for simply styled, unshowy cars that deliver the goods at sensible prices.

Mazda: The company's new CX-5 is an SUV with a mission: to premiere Mazda's Skyactiv technology which signifies a thorough look at the way a conventional petrol engine works, to the extent that one model of CX-5 will hit 63mpg in the official tests, despite being a biggish and quite heavy car. A 2.2 diesel version is expected to be the biggest seller. Prices should start around £23,000.

The Mercedes B-Class is due in the UK in March

Time to get a grip

PEUGEOT'S 3008 Crossover with Grip Control is the first two wheel drive car to scale the one-in-three steep ski slope at the Snowdome in Tamworth, the UK's original indoor snow-covered ski slope.

While the Snowdome has been scaled by four wheeled drive cars shod with tyres specifically designed for snow, the standard 3008's success was down to the advanced technology available in the multi-award winning family car.

As British winters get harsher, motorists need to know their vehicle will keep them safe in snowy conditions. The 3008 Crossover with Peugeot's innovative Grip Control system could solve the car conundrum, especially for those wanting to stay on the move without the financial and environmental costs of a traditional 4x4.

Standard on the 3008 SR Crossover and as a £470 option on the 3008 Sport and Exclusive HDi 112 and HDi 150 models, Grip Control is an intelligent traction control system, automatically improving the vehicle's grip on difficult surfaces such as snow, mud, dirt tracks and wet grass, making it a car for all conditions without the disadvantages of increased weight and emissions.

The system works with the vehicle's Electronic Stability Programme to maintain the best possible traction from the front wheels. It has five operating modes which the driver can select from a control mounted on the centre console.

Grip Control is helped by the standard fitment of 215/60 R16 Michelin Latitude Tour HP "Mud & Snow" tyres, which are suitable for off-road use. These tyres have special "StabiliGrip"blades within the tread pattern that lock together to maintain contact with the given terrain.

James Smith, operations manager at the Snowdome drove the 3008 up the slope.

"I was totally astounded at its ability," he said. "The 3008 felt totally at home on the slope, more so in fact than some 4x4s that I've driven. It made relatively light work of the slope and that is no mean feat."

In the freezing conditions of the Tamworth Snowdome, Peugeot's 3008 Crossover shows its mettle

Opting to fit winter tyres may save a life

WINTER tyres could save your life, says What Car?

Winter tyres offer huge safety benefits over normal tyres in adverse conditions, according to research by What Car?, but UK motorists appear unmoved by that fact.

In snow, summer tyres took more than twice the distance to stop on average compared with winter tyres.

When braking on sheet ice from 12mph, the average stopping distance for winter tyres was 12.5m and the summer tyres 19m.

Winter tyres don't only work better on snow and ice, they also perform better than summer tyres on wet roads when the temperature falls below 7C. However, just 10 per cent of UK motorists swapped to winter rubber last year, while five per cent tried but failed due to a shortage of tyres. A full 85 per cent didn't even bother.

What Car? editor-in-chief Chas Hallett said: "Winter tyres make for much safer winter driving, so we would encourage all motorists to change their tyres in the colder months.

Evaluation

Used in this way a set of winter tyres will last motorists several years."

For the evaluation, What Car? tested four brands of winter tyres against their summer tyre counterparts in a series of cold-weather performance tests. The snow and ice testing was carried out in northern Sweden, and the wet and dry tests in Germany.

What Car? went to Germany to conduct wet and dry testing on summer and winter tyres

Kinsey nets a treble as leaders toppled

BANBURY UTD RESERVES 1 CHASETOWN RESERVES 1 – MIDLAND COMBINATION RESERVE LEAGUE DIVISION 1

THE Spencer Ground, Banbury is not the best hunting ground for the Scholars Reserves as the Puritans always seem to raise their game when Chasetown are in town.

Last season Banbury were victors by the single goal and Andy Penny's troops had work hard during this entertaining draw. Entertaining end to end football is great for the neutral; the only problem is you don't get many neutrals at Reserve games.

The visitors started probing to find any weaknesses in the home guard and Theo Robinson found gaps with two early attacks which were saved by Jack Harding.

Drew Aiton hooked a shot narrowly over and Daniel Westwood tried a low drive from the edge of the box which was also gathered by the Puritans keeper.

The hosts were happy to sit back and looked dangerous launching, adopting a route one style of play. During one of these counter attacks Courtney Sowe paraded his goal-stopping talents with the dispossession of Henry Rose who had cleverly timed a long run from his own half. At the opposite end Chasetown's Tom Brown was nearest to breaking the deadlock when he instinctively turned a Chad Degville-Cross pass on to the post. Steve Howkins should have put the hosts in front when connected in mid flight from a James Peppiate cross, only to see his header fly over the bar. United should have also scored when Liam Richardson set up Craig Robinson. The goal was gaping but Robinson placed his shot far too close to Wiggins.

CHASETOWN RESERVES/LADIES

The Scholars bullied their way back into the action and Robinson went close from Matthew Wood's pinpoint pass and Jamie Aiton fired just wide.

The opener came on the hour mark. Courtney Sowe connected to a Jonathan Gould cross but Harding managed to palm away his header. Sowe responded first, side stepping to thrust the loose ball through the goal line defence with his weaker right foot.

First team defender Jack Farmer was introduced to the proceedings on 72 minutes, his first appearance in a blue shirt this season after recovering from an unfortunate leg nerve injury. Just when it looked like Chasetown were holding for three points from their afternoon's graft, Rose ran on to a through ball from Eyre before driving it irresistibly with his right foot claiming the equaliser.

Banbury will become more familiar during October as Chasetown re-visit the Spencer Ground for round two of the Challenge Trophy on the 15th and later become entertainers at home for a league match on the 29th.

CHASETOWN LADIES 5 COSELEY 2

Chasetown ladies came from behind to knock league leaders Coseley off the top of the West Midlands League Division One North.

Coseley took the lead inside five minutes with a good header at the near post, but Chasetown were level with a great free kick from Jodie Kinsey, and almost took the lead in bizarre circumstances when Megan Rose's throw in went in directly, only to be correctly ruled out as no-one else had touched the ball on its way into the net.

Player-Manager Carly Edwards led by example to put Chasetown Ladies 2-1 in front. Coseley showed why they were top of the league at start of play, netting a powerful header to level the score again at 2-2.

Chasetown substitute Lucy Allen made an instant impact, setting up Charlotte Bull and the home side had a two-goal cushion following another Jodie Kinsey free-kick, which went straight through the Coseley's keeper's legs.

The game was won when Katie Rose's corner found the head of Kinsey, who completed her hat-trick.

LICHFIELD DIAMONDS

Second half is 'after Lord Mayor's show'

WEDNESFIELD TOWN 2 LICHFIELD DIAMONDS LFC 4 – WEST MIDLAND WOMENS PREMIER LEAGUE

DIAMONDS raced into a 4-0 half time lead with some great football. Having Meg Morrish back in centre midfield was a big bonus and with Zoe Barrett partnering in midfield the pair always had an outlet left with Sophie Waddle linking well with Kim Hill and right with Alison Livermore.

This kept Diamonds on the front foot and with Karen Clough's clinical finishing the goals soon came as Clough hit a hat-trick in a 12 minute spell.

Barrett hit an unstoppable shot from the edge of the box which hit the inside of the post and ran across the face of goal, as the ball was turned back into the goalmouth Emma Dagley reacted quickly to fire home.

Unfortunately for the second half it was a case of after the Lord Mayor's show. As an attacking threat Diamonds were non-existent, managing just one strike on goal from Livermore. There was no threat down the flanks and with a tiring Morrish replaced with 15 minutes to go it was only through good defending that Diamonds held out until the last five minutes.

Before – assistant club manager Andy Cox, 44, and physiotherapist Mick Andrews weigh-in at Chasetown

After – Andy has managed to lose five stone since last Christmas and is now looking much trimmer

Scholars' Andy sees weight drop off

SUPER slimmer Andy Cox revealed his new figure was worth the weight after conquering his own personal mountain.

Chasetown FC's assistant manager has shed five-and-a-half stone since Christmas after a £50 bet with Scholars boss Charlie Blakemore.

Cox tipped the scales at 21-and-a-half stone at his heaviest and knew he needed to lose the pounds but was given the motivation by friend Blakemore, with the money going to the club's physio department run by Mick Andrews. "It's like climbing a mountain," said Cox.

"On your way up to the top it's really difficult and you have moments where you think you're never going to do it.

Sensibly

"But after a period of time you've got a resolve to keep going. Once you get to the top of the mountain the determination is there anyway."

The 44-year-old, who is Chasetown's record appearance holder with 534 outings, is now aiming to lose another two stone and said he lost the weight by eating sensibly and exercising.

He has been supported by wife Denise and daughters Emma, eight, and Zoe, eight.

"We went to Buckingham Palace on Monday for a family outing and I drove back from London without stopping," said Cox, from Heath Hayes.

"I always seemed to be sleeping before – I was amazed I got any work done."

Another week, another hat-trick from Lea Hall

LEA HALL FC U-14 3 HAWKINS SPORTS JUNIORS 3

Three weeks into the season and three different Lea Hall players have scored hat-tricks. This time it was the turn of Parents' Man of the Match Natiq Choudhury, who struck after Hall had trailed 3-0. Manager's Player: Jack Earll.

HAWKINS SPORTS JUNIORS U-12 6 PENKRIDGE JUNIORS 2

Morris and Charlie Knobbs made it four before Berry went on to complete his hat-trick.

CHASETOWN JUNIORS U-10 3 CANNOCK TOWN BLUES 2

Goals from Man of the Match William Reaney (2) and Kier Rhodes (1) secured the points for the home side despite a late push from Cannock who never gave up and scored through from Alex Hollyhead and Kyle Horton in a spirited finale . Cannock Man of the Match was Jack Davis.

RUGELEY RANGERS LIONS U-11 6 BRERETON TOWN 3

Another well deserved win for the Lions maintained their impressive start to the season. A fantastic team performance was polished off with goals from Ben Herriman, Blake McComisky, Cade O'Brien, Jake Webb and two from Thomas Smith. Man of the Match Blake McComisky.

BURNTWOOD DRAGONS U-9 6 LICHFIELD ROUND TABLE 1

Dragons who made the breakthrough through Jack Castro and Alex Tisdell and Alfie Allan-Smith gave them a 3-0 lead at the break.

The visitors pulled one back within seconds of the restart through Marcus Baikie, but Dragons rallied and added further goals from Nathan Cadman,with Alfie Allan-Smith and Jack Castro completing their brace.

BURNTWOOD DRAGONS REDS 3 LICHFIELD CITY SPIRES U12 1

Reds started brightly and marched into a 2-0 lead with goals from Jordan Corrigan and Joel Turner.

The visitors pulled a goal back to provide a nervous finish, but Man of the Match Patrick Owen created a simple tap in for Jordan Corrigan to seal the points.

HOLLY LANE 0 LICHFIELD ROUND TABLE FC U-14 5

In a scintillating display, first half goals from Ashley Froggatt and Oliver Moloney either side of a first club goal for Jacob Pidd meant Round Table went in 3-0 up at half time. Second half goals from Connor McLoughlin and Sam Perry ended the day's scoring and an emphatic victory.

WILLINGTON 4 LICHFIELD ROUND TABLE U-15 4 – LRT WIN 9- 8 AFTER PENALTIES

A bad tempered game saw LRT stage a late comeback to force extra time and eventually progress on penalties.

Willington had the better of the early exchanges but then Adam Milner scored at the far post to put LRT ahead.

Willington equalised and LRT on top they caught out by the long ball and went 2-1 down. After an effort by Milner was ruled out for offside, Willington went 3-1 ahead from the spot.

Adam Milner scored again and when Oscar Davis was flattened in the box. Sean Best coolly slotted home the penalty. Willington went ahead again early in the first half of extra-time, but Best struck home another spot-kick.

With the final kick of the shoot-out Willington hit the post. Penalty scorers for LRT were Sean Best, Adam Milner, Matt Milner, Josh Rudge and Harry Ellis.

Jamie Tombs with his 13lb 3oz common carp

Yours Truly overshadowed by young Jamie's catch

KINGSWOOD Lake produced a 16-fish catch for local angler Jamie Tombs. Fishing boilies over a bed of the same, the all-carp catch included five double figure fish with the biggest a 13lb 3oz common carp.

The stock fish are certainly putting on weight which bodes well for the carp anglers in the coming seasons.

I would like to thank all the customers who donated to the Fishing for Heroes flyfishing stillwater championship round at Blithfield Reservoir. The trout proved a little elusive on the day and not all competitors caught fish. The eventual winner was John Goodwin with a bag of five fish for just over 8lbs, John now goes on to the final at Lechlade.

Yours Truly had the prize for the biggest fish on the day, a 3lb 3oz blue trout. More than £1500 was raised for the charity. Local day ticket coarse fishing waters around the area have been fishing quite well with anglers reporting good catches of carp and bream.

The rivers have been desperate for some extra water which may help to improve sport but there have been several double figure barbel caught along the Trent and the River Dove continues to produce the occasional specimen .

As we enter the autumn period, specialist anglers will be turning their attention to pike fishing. October is one of my favourite fishing months and is a good time to target most species as they feed heavily prior to the onset of the colder months and a drop in water temperature that will reduce their natural larder. Following the success of our fly-tying classes last spring we will shortly be arranging a beginners' and an intermediates course. If you are interested please call in and register your details as places are limited.

In 2012 we will be offering customers the chance to join us on some sea fishing trips including the blue shark trips. A schedule of dates will be available in store soon.

Don' forget to send us an e-mail with a picture if you catch anything of interest, and let us know if you have had a great days sport and want to give your fishery a mention.

City ladies left purring by hat-trick from Jess

CANNOCK 1ST XI 4 SOUTHGATE 0

CANNOCK followed up their impressive opening day victory at Hampstead and Westminster with another win at home to Southgate.

Cannock created early chances, but were unable to break through the Southgate defence. However, after Will Fleet won a short corner the ever dependable Ross Hayward scored a deflection to put the home side 1-0 up. The rest of the half was very strongly contested with both sides having chancing until some incredible work from firstly Dave Harris putting a great ball to Arjan Drayton-Chana who pushed the ball under the keeper to make it 2-0.

After a spell of Southgate pressure, Marc Edwards volleyed in off the post from the top of the D. Cannock seemed home and dry at this point and after the umpires gave Southgate two yellow cards, Dave Harris stepped up and scored an impressive drag flick to make it 4-0 to leave Cannock joint top of the table. Man of the Match was Stuart Gooderham.

CANNOCK 2ND XI 4 WOLVERHAMPTON 1ST XI 4

Cannock seconds finished their pre-season fixtures with a high-scoring encounter against Wolverhampton firsts.

The visitors took the lead through a penalty corner which was equalised by Jack Middleton's penalty flick. Cannock then took a 2-1 lead before Wolverhampton pegged them back.

Cannock kept edging ahead with the visitors equalising to make the final score of a very open game 4-4. Cannock's other goals came from Lewis Jecketts, Dan Beck and Jack Middleton's second of the game.

CANNOCK 4TH XI 2 STREETLY 2ND XI 0

Fielding a very young side Cannock expected a tough game in their final pre-season friendly.

The embryonic side rose to the challenge and quickly put the Streetly side under early pressure and eventually Cannock gained the third in a series of short corners, which Andy Broome turned in.

The victory was sealed in the second half when Callum Stacey's shot was stopped by a foot on the line. Alex Hill placed the resulting penalty flick neatly between the keeper's legs.

The league season starts this weekend with a home fixture against Leek 5ths.

CANNOCK 5TH XI 5 STREETLY 3RD XI 3

A youthful Cannock team played their first game of the season with an away friendly at Streetly and came away with a well cultured 5-3 victory.

Karl Owen skillfully deflected the ball past the helpless goalkeeper to give Cannock the lead.

Cannock increased their lead when Gary Stacey exchanged a one-two with Karl Bayliss before putting the ball in the net with a reverse stick finish. Streetly rallied for a short while and pulled a goal back through a penalty corner.

Cannock restored their two goal advantage through a Stacey penalty corner.

Cannock finished off the half with a fourth goal through Fergus Forsyth.

The second half saw additional goals came hard to come by as the woodwork got a battering, though Streetly did score twice. it could have been more but for an outstanding penalty save from Rufus Horn in the Cannock goal – and Bayliss made the game safe with Cannock's fifth.

HOCKEY LATEST

The real business starts this weekend as Cannock entertain Telford.

CANNOCK 6TH XI 1 STREETLY 4TH XI 0

Following the main event at Chase Park the sixth team took on Streetly in the final friendly fixture before the league begins.

With no regular goalkeeper Aaron Wilkes stepped in and did well. The difference between the sides was a first half goal poached by Jonny Machin.

STAFFORD LADIES 1ST XI 2 CANNOCK LADIES 3RD XI 1

Cannock travelled to promotion favourites Stafford in their first away fixture of the season.

Despite having to handle a lot of pressure Cannock stood firm early in the game and against the run of play the visitors scored a freak goal from captain Stacy Mound when a shot was deflected off a Stafford stick and looped over the keeper.

As expected Stafford, who lost only twice all last season, came out fighting in the second half.

Cannock kept the hosts at bay until with 20 minutes left the pressure told and Stafford levelled. And as the momentum changed Stafford found a winning goal.

CANNOCK LADIES 4TH XI 2 STONE LADIES 2ND XI 1

After a slow start, Stone scored the opener before Cannock equalised through Yvonne Edgington. Cannock got straight back into the game after the break and Amy Neal scored the second.

CANNOCK LADIES 5TH XI 1 TAMWORTH LADIES 3RDS 3

Cannock made their debut in Division 3 against a skilful Tamworth 3rd team. With no subs this was always going to be a tough game.

Cannock defended well with Rita Parker Player of the Match. Cannock's forwards battled well against an experienced Tamworth defence and Jane Craddock was unlucky to hit the post.

After a goalless first half, Tamworth scored two goals in quick succession before Jane Craddock pulled one back.

Cannock were struggling with fitness towards the last 15 minutes and Tamworth capitalised on this to score their third goal.

WHITCHURCH 5 LICHFIELD MEN'S 1ST XI 1

It's been over eight months since Lichfield tasted defeat and it is paramount that the newly promoted team pick themselves up from this heavy defeat.

After a long journey Lichfield started brightly and created a number of half chances in the opening minutes. After an early short corner was saved by the Whitchurch number one, the away team were quietly confident that they could surprise one of the strongest teams in the league.

However, Lichfield then surrendered possession and were subsequently punished. It was soon 2-0 after the home side were awarded a fortunate short corner.

It appeared the floodgates would open as another short corner was despatched and to add to Lichfield's misery, a 50 yard ball pierced their defence leaving the Whitchurch forward with just the goalkeeper to beat, which he did confidently. It was left for Barton to cap off a thoroughly miserable half by missing an open goal.

Playing with more urgency in the second half Lichfield went to work on reducing the deficit.

However, it was Whitchurch who extended their lead against the run of play. Lichfield were also rueing the loss of their centre forward Danny Campbell with what looked like a very nasty gash above the eye, which left the energetic playmaker requiring stitches.

After another bout of short corners, Lichfield were finally rewarded for their perseverance from an unusual source, the ever-impressive Will Davies.

WEST BRIDGFORD 2 LICHFIELD MENS 4TH XI 2

The fourth team showed tremendous team spirit by coming from two goals down to secure a draw against a strong West Bridgford side.

John Davies, making his debut for the fourths and playing in goal, teamed up with his dad Steve to make a strong partnership in defence.

At half-time Alex Balla moved to the forward line and scored both goals.

WORCESTER 2 LICHFIELD MENS 8TH XI 4

Lichfield travelled to Worcester to play a strong side and came away with two goals each from Oliver Mason and Jamie Wilkinson.

Christopher Sullivan and Kippy Bowen were the scorers as the ninth team won 2-1 at Sutton.

LICHFIELD LADIES 1ST XI 4 NORTH STAFFS 1

The opening game of the new league season pitted Lichfield against North Staffs and the opening 25 minutes was a very nervous affair.

Lichfield went behind to a well taken goal from a penalty corner, but gradually Lichfield got into their stride and began to play hockey that was too quick for North Staffs to handle.

The equaliser came just before half time – an excellent move finished off by Nicky Mills.

The second half was a much better performance with Lichfield dominating and Girl of the game, Jess Taylor Tibbott was in the right place to finish off two short corners before notching her hat-trick.

The second team beat Bloxwich 3-1 with goals from Rachael Eastland, Joanne Wilcox and Nicky Menmuir.

LICHFIELD LADIES 4TH XI 1 STAFFORD 3RDS 0

This was a tough match against a strong Stafford side, and it served as a reminder that matches in Staffordshire League Division 3 will be a far tougher prospect than Division 4 games.

It was 0-0 at half time but newcomer Lisa Sutcliffe scored the only goal of the game. Goalkeeper Hattie Wright was Player of the Match.

STREETLY 1 LICHFIELD LADIES 6TH XI 1

Lichfield travelled to Streetly with a young inexperienced side and it was the hosts that started strongly and scored from a short corner.

Lichfield fought back with Glenda Francis equalising. Girl of the Game was Niamh Gent.

Four wins on trot as captain Newton sets the standard

RUGELEY 30 HANDSWORTH 14

RUGELEY continued their unbeaten start to the season with a dominant performance against Handsworth, thanks to some free flowing rugby and tough tackling – much to the pleasure of captain Baz Newton.

It was Newton himself that set the standard for his young team with some physical tackles and powerful runs early on and it wasn't long before Rugeley had the lead.

Some free flowing passing and offloads saw Martyn Bentley with his hands on the ball and although 22 yards out and two Handsworth players to beat there was nothing to stop a powerful run to the posts for Rugeley's first try.

Rugeley wouldn't have to wait long for their second try which was again scored Bentley. With more good play from Rugeley and excellent tackling from Mathew Connell, Handsworth were finding it very difficult to combat Rugeley's dominant play.

Naturally this dominance was to take its toll on Rugeley's players and while juggling around their team Rugeley became weaker and Handsworth took advantage coming back with two quick tries of their own.

Rugeley turned the pressure back on, however, and with the reliable boot of Grocott back in the team Handsworth found themselves on the back foot and deep in their own half. Rugeley soon re-took the lead when a mazy run round four players ended with an excellent try by Michael Wilkes.

Another try soon followed when Simon Beeney skipped around the Handsworth defence to score Rugeley's fourth try of the game and with two penalties added, Rugeley made it four wins from four games.

Rugeley's under 15s Team were victorious over local rivals Willenhall with a 39-25 victory with try scorers including Arek Janas, Samuel Beattie and Owen Kirkbride.

Patched-up Myrtles side tails off

BOURNVILLE 67 LICHFIELD 28

LICHFIELD faced up to early season high flyers Bournville at Birmingham University, with a number of changes from the previous week's team.

Coach Nic Sporcic was able to call upon a fit again Sam Baker, George Cotterhill and Richard Burton. Unfortunately Jonny Evans and Paul Finnemore were new additions to a lengthening list of absentees.

Lichfield began in positive fashion. After an exchange of early penalties, the green wall stood firm until the 16th minute. The home side then struck again just seven minutes later, the first of four tries for impressive centre Rob Eatough.

The away side continued to compete well in the face of a Bournville barrage. Encouragingly, they were able to post the next try, courtesy of lock Joe Thompson. Josh Massey added the conversion to his earlier penalty. The next 15 minutes would prove costly to Lichfield, who were well in the game at only 17-10 behind, but by half-time trailed 34-13. Three points off the boot of Josh Massey was all Lichfield could muster in reply to two tries and a penalty.

Bournville were quick out of the blocks for the second half. Another try and penalty followed in quick succession, but stung into action at 13-41, the Greens began to fight back. Tom Adams scored and another foray into the opposition 22 brought a third try through Gareth Brear. Another penalty from Josh Massey and it was game on at 41-28 with 60 minutes on the clock.

A patched-up side tailed off disappointingly in the final quarter and the home side's superior fitness proved telling and they were able to run in a further four tries.

Ben Jevons fires home the winner for Chasetown past the Kendal goalkeeper

HEADED GOAL IS A SHAW FIRE WINNER

NORTH FERRIBY 1 HEDNESFORD TOWN 2, EVO-STIK NORTHERN PREMIER DIVISION,SATURDAY SEPTEMBER 24

HEDNESFORD TOWN FC

HEDNESFORD Town kept pace with the top four teams in the Evo-Stik Northern Premier Division as they came from a goal behind to beat managerless North Ferriby United and register their seventh win of the season.

Chris Clements continued his good run of form as the classy central midfielder scored the Pitmen's equaliser and set up the winner from a corner for Chris Shaw.

The Villagers started positively as they searched for only their fourth win of the season but it was Hednesford who came closest in the opening exchanges as Marvin Robinson, freshly restored to the starting line up to partner Gary Hay in attack, rolled Sam Denton superbly and crashed a left footed shot off the outside of the post. North Ferriby played some eye-catching passing football during the middle part of the first half and took the lead on 26 minutes when Gary Bradshaw picked the ball up 25 yards out and rifled an unstoppable shot into the top corner of the net.

The Pitmen, despite struggling to contain Bradshaw, got a foothold in the game with Clements, Darren Campion and Jay Denny impressing in midfield and equalised on 37 minutes when Campion hung up a superbly flighted left footed cross for Clements to run onto and strongly head into the net past Steve Wilson.

Following their equaliser Hednesford continued to create opportunities and Robinson could have given Rob Smith's side the lead on 43 minutes but the striker miskicked and Wilson was able to claw the ball clear.

The North Ferriby goalkeeper and captain was again called upon just before half-time when Campion's well controlled shot had to be dealt with but the Pitmen got the vital breakthrough two minutes into first half stoppage time when a perfect corner kick by Clements was met at the back post by Shaw to coolly head his side into the lead.

Bradshaw continued to threaten for North Ferriby in the second period but it was an innocuous long ball which caught out Pedro Monteiro that almost led to an equaliser as Sam Mulready advanced on goal, only to be smartly denied by a hitherto untroubled Dan Crane.

There was a real edge to a combative second half as the Pitmen defended stoutly and could have made the game safe as a deep cross by Denny was headed narrowly over the bar by a stooping Robinson on 65 minutes.

The expected onslaught from North Ferriby came in the final ten minutes as they desperately searched for an equaliser but Hednesford defended doggedly and as the final seconds ticked on Nick Wellecomme was denied a third goal by a good save from Wilson.

Scholars dig deep to claim the points

CHASETOWN 2 KENDAL TOWN 1, EVO-STIK NORTHERN PREMIER LEAGUE, SATURDAY SEPTEMBER 24

CHASETOWN FC

CHASETOWN had to dig deep on Saturday but were rewarded with a 2-1 victory at the Scholars Ground.

Charlie Blakemore's side overcame the early loss of Dean Perrow to injury to produce a determined display, Jordan Johnson's fine second half form the highlight.

Both sides started brightly but Scholars took the lead on 13 minutes as a ball in from the right was headed downwards by Danny Smith and bounced in off the far post.

Two minutes later and Chasetown looked certain to make it two but Perrow's shot rebounded off the post and the ball was hoofed out by Mark Peers for a corner.

Perrow departed injured after just 20 minutes and Karl Edwards replaced him, and two minutes later a well-placed cross from the left found Wayne Curtis in space and he levelled for the visitors.

The hosts were back in front on 34 minutes as Edwards and Jevons broke away and the latter produced a fine finish to evade Field keeper Craig Dootson.

The lively Curtis headed out Chasetown's first chance after the break before Jevons headed past Dootson on 56 minutes but was denied by the linesman's flag.

Johnson was the next to show with a run down the right but Smith just failed to get his head to the resulting cross and Walmsley cleared for a corner.

Jimmy Turner blocked a low scything shot from Walmsley on 76 minutes before Johnson impressed again only to see his shot palmed down by Dootson.

The Scholars were visiting Worksop Town last night (Wednesday) before taking on Grantham in the FA Cup on Saturday (October 1) at 3pm.

Winger Alex Steadman has re-joined Mickleover Sports after Chasetown agreed an undisclosed fee for him. Steadman joined Scholars this summer but has struggled to hold down a regular first team place.

Manager Charlie Blakemore said: "Alex is a really nice lad and I rate him but sometimes it just doesn't work out. I thought it was the best decision for all involved to let Alex move on and I wish him all the best.

Chris Shaw rises highest to head home Hednesford's equaliser against North Ferrriby

Home run is stretched to 19 unbeaten

HEDNESFORD TOWN 4 BURSCOUGH 0 – EVO-STIK NORTHERN PREMIER DIVISION, TUESDAY SEPTEMBER 27

HEDNESFORD Town extended their unbeaten home run to 19 matches and leapfrogged Bradford Park Avenue and Chester to sit third in the Evo-Stik Northern Premier despite putting in a performance which flattered to deceive in parts.

The Pitmen scored four quality goals and never looked like losing. However manager Rob Smith had reason to be frustrated as his side let a team, lying rock bottom of the league, threaten their goal too often.

The Pitmen's attacking play brimmed with quality as Jamey Osborne and Chris Clements came up against little resistance from a lightweight Burscough midfield during the opening 20 minutes.

Osborne shot wide on 13 and a minute later Marvin Robinson was given space to nod in Darren Campion's left wing corner.

Mark Beesley should have done better when he side-footed wide six minutes after the first goal but the away side's defensive frailty was in evidence as Osborn lashed in the Pitmen's second on 25 minutes.

Will Jones forced a quality save from Crane on the half hour before Clements stroked in a free kick six minutes later to make the game safe for Hednesford before the break.

Nick Wellecomme rounded the keeper to score the fourth on 59 minutes but, as the final half hour began, the home side allowed Beesley, Matty Parry and Phil Quirk the opportunity to come close to securing a consolation for the visitors.

All eyes turn to the FA Cup on Saturday (October 1) as the Pitmen travel to Carlton Town for a second round qualifying tie which could set up the chance of a long overdue cup run. Kick off is at 3pm.

Disastrous start, but pace and power sees Hayes progress

HEATH HAYES 5 AFC WULFRUNIANS 1, FA VASE 2ND QUALIFYING ROUND, SATURDAY SEPTEMBER 24

HEATH HAYES FC

HAYES fully deserved their place in the next round after coming from behind to produce a display of pace and power.

The visitors, who the previous week had taken Stafford Rangers to the wire in the FA Cup, had no answer, although Hayes, fielding arguably their strongest side for the first time this season, had started in disastrous fashion.

Andrew Tuck conceded an unnecessary free-kick and Danny Crudington beat Adam Jenkins to put Wulfs in front.

Ben Haseley and Danny Owen went close to reducing the arrears before Dave Waple superbly judged the bounce of Jenkins' long goal kick and headed home over the advancing keeper into the net. Haseley then put the home side in front firing home Chris Geldart's cross.

Hayes were now rampant and Haseley increased the lead. On the stroke of half time Haseley completed a well earned hat-trick with a strike that keeper Raajan Gill could only help into his net.

Wulfs had their best spell after the break. Nathan Rose-Laing was clear on goal but Tuck produced a superb interception to clear the danger and then the striker pulled his shot wide when again well placed.

As the half wore on the home side again took control and it was no surprise when substitute Andre Gonzalles got the fifth.

Heath Hayes visit Coalville for a Midland Alliance fixture on Saturday (October 1), kick off 3pm.
